FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department.

Sir,

In G.O. No 196 Judicial dated 29 January 1904, the Government sanctioned a scheme for the reorganization of the warder Establishment at the Penitentiary Madras. The main object desired to be effected by the Scheme was the substitution of European for Native agency in the internal administration of the prison chiefly with the view to the prevention of a considerable illicit traffic in contraband that was being carried on for a long time through the agency of the native warders employed intramurally. To this end the number of European warders was raised from 4 to 21 which was considered the minimum number necessary for the operation of the Scheme, while there was a net reduction on the whole establishment numerically, of 37 members.

2. Great pains were taken to enlist suitable young men of respectable parentage for the 17 additional posts of European warders thus created. Two of the number entertained were qualified under examination rules being matriculates (one had not passed the handwriting test) and two were ex-military men who by virtue of their possessing Second class certificates of military education were considered 'qualified' to hold such appointments, while two of the old hands at the Penitentiary were transferred to other Jails to fill vacancies as European chief warders. In G.O. No 382 Miscellaneous dated 21st June 1904 the Government permanently exempted 14 men from the examination rules for employment in the Jail Department.

3. Four European warders of those employed at the Penitentiary have since resigned

three of these being Ex-Military men to whom the work of the prison did not apparently prove congenial. The fourth was Mr. Cooke a matriculate who was temporarily exempted from the hand-writing test but who resigned to take up a more lucrative appointment in the Railway Service. In their places four new men have been entertained, two of whom are qualified matriculates and two not qualified under the examination rules namely P. Delaney and R. Wilson. Military Reservists possessing Second class certificates of education are not available while Military Pensioners would not be suitable on account of their age.

4. P. Delaney is the Son of the late Conductor Delaney of the Ordnance Department. He is reported to be active and intelligent and to have Studied up to the Matriculation Standard in St. Mary's College but his mother for want of means was unable to keep him longer at School.

R. Wilson is the son of one of the oldest book-keepers in a well-known mercantile house in Madras. He too is reported to have studied up to the Matriculation Standard and was employed as a clerk under Messrs. Binny and Co. before being taken on at the Jail. In the circumstances explained I request that the Government will be pleased to Sanction the exemption of Messrs. P. Delaney and R. Wilson for employment in the Jail Department.

5. In this Connection I venture to point out how very difficult it is to obtain European or Eurasian Matriculates on the Small Salary offered, and whereas the duties of European warders are almost purely executive, a high Standard

Standard of education is not so necessary as in the case of clerical appointments. What we require are young intelligent men of general education. The name of one such man, Mr. H. W. Marshall, was sent up with this office letter No. 5141 dated 22d July 1904 but Government declined to exempt him in their order No. 472 Educational dated 2d August 1904; a few days later he obtained an appointment in the Police on Rs 40 per mensem instead of Rs 35 in the Jail Department. Of this class there are a fair number available and I anticipate no difficulty in filling up vacancies provided Government will exempt them from the education rules. I need hardly say that qualified candidates will be appointed whenever available. I also venture to point out to Government that of the officers now in the department, 3 of the Superintendents, 6 of the Jailors and 5 Deputy Jailors have been exempted from the education tests, and have proved themselves thoroughly efficient in their duties. The majority of these officers received their training as European warders in the Penitentiary.

6. In conclusion, I can only assure Government that only the names of such men as are likely to turn out well will be submitted for exemption.

I have the honor &c
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

scheme Marshall was proposed for appointment but the Edl. dept declined to exempt him from the tests at all, (G.O. 472 Edl. 2.8.04) although the I.G. said that no qualified candidates were then available for appointment as European warders. Unfortunately that order was not seen in Judl. dept before it issued & Edl. was probably unaware of the ~~fact that~~ scheme recently sanctioned. The I.G. has now applied for the exemption of two more European warders. It cannot be easy to get suitable Europeans for the post of warder & if the Edl. decline exemptions in these cases & in other cases which may be similar cases as in Marshall's, the Edl. dept. may prevent the scheme from being carried out or may at least defer it for some time. I submit that Edl. may be asked to send the papers back to Judl. w.o. if the reasons given by the I.G. are not considered sufficiently weighty.

Education have sent over the order in Marshall's case for us to see — I am quite sure that from my experience with Eurasians &

Europeans in the Police that unless exemption is liberally allowed — it will be quite impossible to carry out the new scheme of warders in the Penitentiary properly. I submit Judl may ask Educn to exempt these two men.

2. In applying for the permanent exemption of Mr. Marshall the I.G. of Prisons* said that no qualified candidates were then available. This seemed to be ground only for temporary exemption.

3. The Inspector-General's letter was simply transferred to Educational by Judicial without an expression of opinion.

With reference to the Chief Secretary's note at "A" on Page 2, it is submitted that it is not the practice to send for acceptance to the Department concerned drafts on applications for exemption from qualifying tests ..

2. Exemption was given in G.O. 382 of the 21-6-04 in respect of a long list of candidates already in employment, in connection with the new scheme - and it was understood that this list provided for all requirements.

In the case of W. Marshall the I.G.'s (Jails) letter seemed to apply for permanent exemption in respect of a temporary appointment.

3. In the circumstances now stated by the I.G. the exemption of P. Delaney and R. Wilson may be sanctioned. Marshall has since obtained employment in the police on better pay than he would have got in the Jail Dept.
