Approving, with remarks, the proposals of the Inspector-General and the Commissioner of Police recommending that certain — be prescribed for appointments on Rs. 50 and upwards in their offices.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

Official Memorandum No. 3114, Judicial, dated 8th August 1904.

It is observed that while the managers and accountants in District Police offices have to pass the Account Test, Higher grade, and the Criminal Test, Lower grade, the manager and accountants in the office of the Inspector-General of Police are not required to pass any special tests. In view of the fact that the head office should be able to command qualified men, the Inspector-General of Police is requested to be so good as to state whether tests should not be prescribed for the appointments of manager and of accountants in his office.

(By Order.)

A. Y. G. CAMPBELL,
Ag. Under Secretary to Government.

To the Inspector-General of Police.

From W. O. HORNE, Esq., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 18th August 1904, No. 3409.

With reference to Judicial Department memorandum No. 3114, dated 8th August 1904, I have the honour to state that I consider that qualifying tests should be prescribed for all appointments of Rs. 50 and upwards in my office except that of the storekeeper. I recommend that the following tests be prescribed for the posts noted below, in addition to the Précis test which is at present prescribed for posts on Rs. 60 and upwards :—

Manager	Criminal Test, Higher grade, Account Test, Higher grade, and a departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.
Head clerk (Rs. 120—6—150).	For this appointment, which is next below that of the manager, I would prescribe the same tests, as the incumbent should be qualified to take up the post of manager when necessity arises.
Head auditor and all other appointments of Rs. 65 and upwards.	Criminal Test, Lower grade, Account Test, Higher grade, and the test in Police Orders and Practice.
For all other appointments of Rs. 50 and upwards.	Criminal Test, Lower grade, and Account Test, Lower grade.

2. If these proposals are approved, I suggest that they be not held to affect the present holder of any appointment. Further promotion should however be confined to those who qualify themselves by passing the tests prescribed for any higher appointment. A list of the men who now hold these appointments is given on pages 136 and 138 of the Quarterly List of subordinate officers of the Madras Police corrected to 1st July 1904.

3. In the foregoing proposals I have referred to the departmental test in Police Orders and Practice. Formerly this test was required of all inspectors before confirmation, and as the managers and accountants (as now designated) were then inspectors called head-quarter inspectors and audit inspectors, they had to pass it like others.

Now, however, managers and accountants are not inspectors and are exempt from the tests required of the latter, among them that in Police Orders. Nevertheless I consider it essential that they should pass it. I propose that all managers and accountants of District Police offices, and all clerks in my office on Rs. 65 and upwards, be required to pass a test in departmental Police Orders before promotion to those grades.

Memorandum No. 3504, Judicial, dated 10th September 1904.

The attention of Government has been drawn to the fact that the manager and clerks of the office of the Commissioner of Police, Madras, are not required to pass any special tests except the Précis-writing test which, however, is prescribed for all posts on Rs. 60 and upwards. In view of the importance of a knowledge of criminal law and of accounts, the Government consider that special tests should be prescribed for appointments in the Commissioner's office. Before passing orders the Government desire to be furnished with the Commissioner's views on the subject.

M. HAMMICK,
Chief Secretary.

To the Commissioner of Police, Madras.

From C. H. TRAVERS, Esq., Acting Commissioner of Police, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 30th September 1904, No. 550.

In reply to memorandum No. 3504, Judicial, dated the 10th September 1904, I have the honour to propose the following special tests for the manager and three clerks in my office who draw pay of Rs. 50 and upwards per mensem—

Manager	Criminal Judicial Test, Higher grade, Account Test, Higher grade, and departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.
One accountant and cash-keeper.	Criminal Judicial Test, Lower grade, Account Test, Higher grade, and departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.
Clerks on pay Rs. 50 and upwards.	Criminal Judicial Test, Lower grade, and Account Test, Lower grade.

ORDER—No. 648, Educational, dated 28th October 1904.

The proposals of the Inspector-General and the Commissioner of Police are approved.

2. The present permanent incumbents of the appointments now brought within the scope of article 5 of the Public Service Notification will not be required to pass the tests prescribed for those appointments for the purpose of retaining their posts.

3. The necessary alterations will be made in the Secretariat in the revised Public Service Notification which will shortly issue, but the Commissioner for Government Examinations will submit a draft of the corresponding alterations to be carried out in the Special Test Notification.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 648, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 28TH OCTOBER 1904.

[SUBJECT.—Special tests for clerks in the offices of the Inspector-General of Police and the Commissioner of Police, Madras.]

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 8th July 1904, No. 2648.

* * * *

2. In District Police offices managers and accountants have to pass (1) Account, Higher, and (2) Criminal Judicial, Lower, as well.

Why the manager and accountants in the Inspector-General's own office are let off these two tests is not clear. Perhaps Judicial may be asked.

A. GALLETTI—16-7-04.

* * * *

2. The question raised in paragraph 2 of Assistant Secretary's note is a separate one and may be dealt with separately. There certainly seems to be an anomaly in the rules on this point and the head office should be able to command qualified men.

H. D. TAYLOR—18-7-04.

G. S. F[ORBES]—18-7-04.

Take separately extract of paragraph 2 of above notes and send to Judicial u.o. for remarks.

H.D.T.—19-7-04.

To the Judicial Department.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

The question of the tests to be passed by the manager and accountants of the office of the Inspector-General of Police does not appear to have been raised or considered before. An examination of the office establishment of the Inspector-General of Police corrected up to 1st April 1904 shows that the manager has passed the Revenue and Criminal Higher, but not the Account test; that the head accountant has not passed any special tests except Précis-writing; that the head auditor has passed the Account, Higher (besides the Criminal, Lower, and Précis-writing); that the auditor like the head accountant has not passed any special test except the Précis-writing. (It may be noted that they are 48 and 58 years old and have put in 24 and 35 years' service respectively); and the clerk of the Account department has passed the Account, Higher, and Criminal, Higher. It will thus be seen that the majority of the office establishment have passed the Account and Criminal tests.

2. On the general question raised in Educational perhaps the Inspector-General of Police may be asked his opinion. A draft official memorandum is submitted below for approval.

[Official memorandum No. 3114, Judicial, dated 8th August 1904.]

From the Inspector-General of Police, No. 3409, dated 18th August 1904.

Submitted that the Inspector-General's proposals as regards the establishments both in his own office and in district offices may be concurred in and the papers passed on to Educational for favour of issue of necessary orders and amendments to the rules concerning the Special Test examinations.

Yes.

M. HAMMICK—10-9-04.

2. In this connection, attention is invited to the list of establishment of the Commissioner of Police, Madras. It will be seen that special tests are very poorly represented in that office—not to speak of the low general educational qualifications which even the more highly paid clerks possess. It is for consideration whether special tests should not be prescribed for the several appointments in the Commissioner's office. It seems to be rather odd that not one of the clerks has passed the Criminal Judicial test. A draft memorandum to the Commissioner of Police is submitted below for approval.

From the Commissioner of Police, dated 30th September 1904, No. 550.

The Commissioner's proposals may, it is submitted, be accepted. Before, however, these papers are transferred to Educational it would perhaps be well to ascertain from the Commissioner that he does not suggest that his proposals should affect the present holders of the appointments for which he proposes tests. A draft memorandum is submitted below for approval.

I.H.—4-10-04.

For orders. The reference seems hardly necessary. The proposed order should not affect prejudicially any officer now holding one of the appointments affected by it. May the proposals of the Inspector-General and Commissioner be accepted?

A. Y. G. CAMPBELL—5-10-04.

No reference is necessary. But the order will of course have effect as regards future promotions. This can be made clear.

Draft please.

M.H.—9-10-04.

Would Educational kindly send the draft orders for acceptance?

Please put up a précis of the proposals of the Inspector-General of Police and Commissioner as to the tests to be prescribed.

H. D. TAYLOR—10-10-04.

The following tabular statement exhibits in one view the proposals of the Inspector-General and the Commissioner of Police as to the special tests to be prescribed for the higher appointments in their offices:—

In the office of the Inspector-General of Police.	In the office of the Commissioner of Police.	Special tests proposed.
Posts.	Posts.
Manager	Manager	1. Criminal Judicial test, Higher grade. 2. Account test, Higher grade. 3. Departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.
Head clerk (Rs. 120—6—150).		1. Criminal Judicial test, Higher grade. 2. Account test, Higher grade. 3. Departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.
Head auditor and all other subordinates on Rs. 65 and upwards.	One Accountant and cashkeeper.	1. Criminal Judicial test, Lower grade. 2. Account test, Higher grade. 3. Departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.
All others on Rs. 50 and upwards except store-keeper	Clerks on Rs. 50 and upwards.	1. Criminal Judicial test, Lower grade. 2. Account test, Lower grade.

The present holders should not be required to pass these tests for retaining their present posts.

2. The Inspector-General of Police further proposes that the managers and accountants in District Police offices should, in addition to the tests * they have now to pass, be required to pass the departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.

P. T. THARYAN—13-10-04.

A. GALLETTI—13-10-04.

The proposals may be approved.

H. D. TAYLOR—14-10-04.

Very well; but I doubt whether auditors and accountants should be required to qualify by Judicial tests. However we can see how it works.

G. S. F[ORBES]—15-10-04.

Draft please and send to Judicial for acceptance.

Sir,

With reference to Judicial department Memorandum No.3114, dated 8th August 1904, I have the honour to state that I consider that qualifying tests should be prescribed for all appointments of Rs.50 and upwards in my office except that of the Store-Keeper. I recommend that the following tests be prescribed for the posts noted below, in addition to the Precis test which is at present prescribed for posts on Rs.60 and upwards.

Manager

Criminal Test - Higher Grade,
Account Test, do.
and a departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.

Head Clerk
(Rs.120-6-150).

For this appointment, which is next below that of the Manager, I would prescribe the same tests, as the incumbent should be qualified to take up the post of Manager when necessity arises.

Head Auditor and all other appointments of Rs.65 and upwards.

Criminal Test - Lower Grade
Account Test - Higher Grade.
and the test in Police Orders and Practice.

For all other appointments of Rs.50 and upwards.

Criminal Test - Lower Grade
and Account Test - Lower "

2. If these proposals are approved, I suggest that they be not held to affect the present holder of any appointment. Further promotion should however be confined to those who qualify themselves by passing the tests prescribed for any higher appointment.
