Sir,

Submitted for favourable consideration.

2. My English Head Clerk says that "the applicant was attached to the Sub Collector's Office when he was Head Clerk there. The then Magisterial Clerk of that office was subject to chronic asthma and the applicant, though only an attender, was doing duty as Magisterial clerk, acting as Bench Clerk, compiling all the returns, putting up small drafts, and reading appeal records before the Joint Magistrate. He was also useful in --- checking village accounts at the Jamabandi".

3. No qualified man is likely to be ousted by the proposed concession, because, as matters stand, there is the utmost difficulty in securing passed men for appointments on Rs.15 in Taluk Offices.

Most Honoured Sir,

I respectfully beg to submit the following few lines to your honour's kind consideration and favourable orders:-

I have joined this Department as a Copyist in the Stationary Sub Magistrate's Office, Madurantakam in 1897. Till the middle of 1898 I was a Copyist and then I was appointed as an attender of the same office and continued in that appointment till August 1899 when I was taken to your honour's Office as an attender. In March 1902 I was appointed as an Amin under Act VIII of 1865 on Rs.12.

I have passed the Lower Secondary Examination of 1892 in the First class and I had to discontinue my studies owing to the very poor circumstances of my family.

As I am not qualified under the Examination rules I am not eligible for a clerk's place on Rs.15. I therefore humbly request that your honour will be pleased to get me exempted from the Examination rules.

I beg to remain,
Most Honoured Sir,
Your honour's most obedient
and humble servant,

(Signed) M. Raghava Aiyar.

Forwarded.

2. The applicant has been doing his work very satisfactorily in this office, and I am sure he will do well in any capacity in which he may be employed.

(Sd.) S. Anantanarayana Aiyer,
Madurantakam. 16-10-1897. Sta. Sub Magist.

M. Raghavayya, attender, has been assisting the 2nd clerk in Magisterial and Summary Suits, work during the time I have been in Chingleput. He is quick and painstaking and deserves promotion. I should have sent him out to a Taluk Office several times as a clerk on Rs.15 but he was too useful in this Office and could not be spared.

Ag. Sub Collector.

Raghava Iyer has been an attender under me for about two years. I have found him very painstaking in his work. Unlike most clerks he is capable of out door work.

Endorsement on an application to the President District Board, Saidapet, for a clerk's post.

Submitted to the President District Board.

2. Applicant was attender of this office in which capacity he has done a lot of clerk's work. I think he would undoubtedly give satisfaction if given the post applied for.

To

The Collector,

Chingleput District.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit an application from Raghava Iyer, process Amin of this office, for exemption from the Examination rules.

2. The applicant passed his Lower Secondary Examination in the first class in 1892. He discontinued his studies owing to unfavourable family circumstances and joined this department in 1897 as a copyist. He was appointed attender on Rs. 7 in 1898 in the office of the Stationary Sub Magistrate's office, Madurantakam where he continued till the middle of 1899. He was then appointed attender of my office on Rs. 8 and in the last year when the entertainment of the process establishment under Act VIII of 1865 was sanctioned he was appointed Amien on Rs. 12

3. He was now no further chance of promotion. As an attender he had to do the work of a clerk and did it efficiently as will be seen from the testimonials given by my predecessors in office, which I would endorse. He possesses a fair knowledge in English, quite sufficient for an ordinary clerk, and having acquired considerable experience of departmental work would make a very good clerk if he ^{were} ~~is~~ exempted from the Examination rules, which bar his promotion. He writes an exceptionally good hand, which makes his drafts easy to read and greatly increase his value ~~as~~ as a clerk.

4. I accordingly venture to request that he may be recommended for exemption from the Examination rules so that he may be promoted to the post of a clerk on Rs.15. 6

5. The form prescribed for permanent exemption from Examination rules is not forthcoming in my office.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
