Sir,

In forwarding herewith copy of a letter received from the Accountant General No. ^{Pa. 332}/₇₀₀₈ dated 20th September 1904, I have the honour to state that Mr. Rungachari returned from tour on the evening of the 6th July and as the fact of Mr. Jayson's reporting himself for duty was not communicated either to this office or to Mr. Rungachari, it was presumed that the appointment of the latter would cease on the day when College reopened after the summer vacation i.e. the 11th July. Under these circumstances, I beg to request that Government may be pleased to treat the period from 3rd to 10th July as joining time.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. R. Henderson

Sir,

In reply to your Reply No. 1387 dated 29th August 1904, to this Office objection Slip No. P.A.D./444, dated 20th Idem, I have the honour to say that Mr. Ranga Chariar's appointment in the Presidency College ceased with effect from the 3rd July 1904. As he did not join his permanent appointment in the museum on that date he must be considered to have exceeded his joining time and the sanction of the Government should be obtained under Article 180 of Civil Service Regulations for treating the period from 3rd to 10th as joining time.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Forwarded. Mr. Wyson who was appointed as Professor of Biology, Presidency College by the Secretary of State reported his arrival on the 3rd July 1904 and was allowed pay from that date according to the terms of his agreement. Mr. K. Runga Chariar acting in the arrangement as senior Assistant Professor, Presidency College must therefore be considered to have reverted to his substantive appointment in the Government Museum from that date and in the ordinary course he should have joined his permanent appointment on the 4th July 1904. As in the circumstances explained he has joined it on the 11th July 1904, he should be held to have exceeded his joining time and the sanction of Government is therefore necessary under article 180 Civil Service Regulations.
