Confirming, as a special case, the sanction given by the Director of Public Instruction to officers of the Educational Department to the purchase of copies of the Abstract of Civil Leave and Pension rules.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 26th September 1904, Ref. on Cur. No. 5047.

The Abstract of Civil Leave and Pension rules issued by the Government of India being found useful for offices, I sanctioned the purchase of it to those inspecting officers who were in need of it. The Sub-Assistant Inspectors, for instance, are not supplied with copies of the Civil Service Regulations and the abstract therefore is very desirable for their offices. Even the higher inspecting officers are supplied with only one copy each of the Civil Service Regulations and as, when they go on tour, they take this copy with them, it is the abstract that is found useful for reference to the office establishment left behind.

2. As under the letter of the Government of India No. 942, dated 3rd March 1900, communicated with G.O., No. 291, Financial, dated 21st March 1900, I am authorized to sanction the purchase of library books among others, I sanctioned the purchase of the abstract out of the contingencies of the respective offices as I considered that this essentially useful publication should find a place in the office libraries which inspecting officers are required to maintain under the Inspection Code. But the Accountant-General has objected to the procedure adopted on the ground that the abstract is a book of reference and not a library book. I fail to see the force of the Accountant-General's objection as every book of reference can be treated as a library book as well. In view, however, of the objection raised, I have the honour to request that the necessary sanction may be accorded, and that in future I may be empowered to sanction the purchase of all books of this nature.

ORDER—No. 664, Educational, dated 9th November 1904.

The Government confirm, as a special case, the sanction given by the Director of Public Instruction to officers of the Educational Department to the purchase of copies of the Abstract of Civil Leave and Pension rules. The Director's attention will be drawn to G.O., No. 102, Financial (Books), dated 17th December 1903, communicated under endorsement of the Educational Department No. 19, dated 9th January 1904. He should have applied to Government for copies from the stock furnished to them by the Supreme Government.

2. The Government see no reason to extend the power of sanction the Director already possesses in regard to the purchase of books.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 664, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
9TH NOVEMBER 1904.

[SUBJECT.—Purchase of copies of the Abstract of Civil Leave and Pension Rules.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 26th September 1904, No. 5047.

In their letter No. 7522 P., dated 10th December 1903, the Government of India intimated that they had no objection to the free supply to officers applying for them of the Abstract of the Civil Leave and Pension rules. This decision was communicated to the Director of Public Instruction in endorsement No. 19, Educational, dated 9th January 1904. In this circumstance there was no necessity for the Director of Public Instruction to sanction the purchase of copies of the abstract for the inspecting officers. His attention may therefore be drawn to the endorsement above and he may now be asked to report the number of copies purchased and the amount paid on that account and to submit his reply through the Accountant-General.

Please see notes in G.O., Nos. 28, 29, Financial (Books), dated 31st May 1904, and in G.O., No. 102, Financial (Books), dated 17th December 1903. Other connected correspondence in this Department is also put up.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

From the Government of India letter No. 2166 P., dated 31st March 1904, referred to in the notes in G.O., Nos. 28, 29, Financial (Books), dated 31st May 1904, it is clear that free supply of copies of the abstract is restricted to supply by Local Governments; and that copies obtained direct by any officer from the Superintendent of Government Printing should be paid for. In these circumstances the best course now seems to be to sanction the purchase of the copies ordered by the Director of Public Instruction. For the future he may be asked to apply to this Government who can then order the Superintendent, Government Press, to supply copies if available from the stock with him—G.O., No. 36, Financial (Books), dated 15th July 1904.

2. Orders have also to be passed on the further question raised by the Director that he may be authorized to purchase all books of this nature in future. Under the sanction conveyed in the letter from the Government of India in G.O., No. 291,

Educational, dated 21st March 1900, the Director has power to authorize "the purchase of class books, library books, prize books, apparatus, etc., within the budget provision". There is no limitation as to the nature or class of books which are to be included under library books. The power to purchase any book for a library now asked for by the Director of Public Instruction may therefore be given to him.

P. T. THARYAN—21-10-04.

Put up orders of 1872. Does not "library" mean "school library"?

A. GALLETTI—21-10-04.

Please see G.O., No. 6, Educational, dated 10th January 1872, but this refers to furniture.

2. G.O., No. 292, Financial, dated 17th February 1879, the other order quoted in letter No. 1326, Financial, dated 2nd December 1899, is also put up. This refers in general terms to "Miscellaneous charges other than office contingencies".

3. "Library" as used in the letter to India apparently means "school library", but there is nothing to prevent its extended application.

P.T.T.—22-10-04.

India's sanction was required; and this is in the way of the interpretation of the term in any sense other than that in which it was used in the letter to India.

A.G.—22-10-04.

The contention of the Accountant-General appears to be correct. The "Abstract of the Civil Leave and Pension rules" can only be issued free for use of officers by Government out of its own stock. The purchase of the copies by the Director of Public Instruction may now be formally sanctioned. The Director of Public Instruction has not reported the number actually purchased.

2. As to the general sanction sought for, the powers of the Director of Public Instruction must be restricted to those delegated under Government of India letter No. 942, dated 3rd March 1900, and this sanction must, I think, be limited to purchase of books for school libraries and not for office use.

H. D. TAYLOR—28-10-04.

Yes: the purchase of the copies of the "Abstract Civil Leave rules" will now be sanctioned; but it is intended that these should be given free from the Government stock for use of Government officers.
