Ootacamund,

1st November 1904.

Through the Inspector General of Supply and Transport,

Madras Command,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Local and Municipal, Educational and

Legislative Department,

Sir,

I respectfully beg Government to grant me permission to appear for the following Special Test Examinations :-

Criminal Judicial Test, Higher Grade.

Revenue Test, Higher Grade.

I passed the Matriculation Examination (Madras University) 18 years ago, and am in the service of Government (Military Department) for over thirteen years.

Present pay-Rs. 200/-

As to my character and capabilities,

I beg to attach copies of the Testimonials given me by the different Inspector Generals of Supply and Transport, Madras Command, under whom I have had the good fortune to serve during the above period, and in doing so, would respectfully pray that my name may be registered for any suitable appointment that Government may deem fit to bestow on me, subject to my passing the above examinations.

2. I believe some similar concessions have been sanctioned by Government in the case of deserving individuals in other Departments, and if it will be pleased to view my application favourably, I shall feel highly thankful.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

C. Y. Dasgupta

1st Assistant, Office of the Inspector General of Supply and Transport, Madras Command.

P.T.O.

Forwarded for favourable consideration. The applicant is an A.I. man - writes clearly and to the point and will, I am sure, be a credit in any post he may be fortunate enough to secure.

Ootacamund, the 1st November 1904.

A very promising young clerk, quite competent to take charge of a Branch - fit for and deserving of further promotion. Very reliable and takes greatest interest in his work.

Bangalore
September 1894.

(Sd.) C. F. Hughes, Colonel,
Commissary General.

A very able, reliable good clerk, his qualifications are very far above the average. He takes much pains with and evinces great interest in his work, and has I am sure a good future before him. I wish him every success and hope to hear of his further advancement.

Ootacamund,
29th December 1896.

(Sd.) E. A. Bruce, Colonel,
Commissary General,
Madras Command.

In every respect an excellent clerk - has a very clear head and is thoroughly reliable. Very hard worker with intelligence much in excess of the average clerk. Well fitted for advancement to a far higher position.

These remarks are made after nearly three years intimate acquaintance with this clerk's work.

C. No. 1941 From the Inspector General of Supply & Transport, Madras Command. No. 12/3812, dated 1-11-1904.

SUBJECT.

Permission to appear for certain special tests.

The Inspector General of Supply and Transport, Madras Command, forwards for favourable consideration an application from C. G. Doraiswami, first Assistant in his office, for permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial and Revenue tests, Higher grade. Doraiswami is a Matriculate and has a service of over thirteen years. There does not appear however to be any special ground for the grant of the concession applied for. Orders are solicited.

Re The Rev. Test, Higher Grade is open to graduates of the Criminal Test, Higher Grade to candidates, who have passed the First Ex. in Arts of the Madras or Calcutta University. There seems to be no ground for an exceptional treatment.
