To

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the permanent exemption of T. Subbarao for entertainment as a Junior Typist on -- Rs 20-1-25 in my office.

2. He has been serving in the Estate Branch of my office for about the last 2 years and has passed the Elementary - Examination in Type-writing and the theoretical course -- of the Intermediate grade.

3. The two Typists whose services were secured after --- much trouble were duly qualified men, having passed the -- required examinations for entertainment in superior service; but one of them was taken to the Guntur Collectorate and - the other has been permitted to go to Chingleput owing to ill-health. My office is therefore without a single --- qualified Typist.

T. Subbarao, though he has not fully passed the Intermediate Type-writing examination, can type at 50 to 60 -- words a minute and is a far better man than many qualified typists. No passed men are now available.

4. In view of the fact that my office was without typists for a long time owing to the difficulty in securing the -- services of men possessing the necessary educational --- qualifications, I now apply for the exemption of T. Subbarao from Examination rules for appointment in my office as a Junior Typist on the condition of his remaining in this district. Persons, secured from the Southern Districts - for want of qualified men in the Northern districts, always try to run away as soon as they find an opportunity to do so, and I therefore think it absolutely necessary that at least one local man, though educationally disqualified and yet technically competent, should be secured in the interests of office work. T. Subbarao, whose exemption is -- now applied for, is such a man and is not likely to leave my office.

5. I have advertised for men for filling up the Senior Typist's place in my office.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. S. Subbarao
ACTING COLLECTOR.
