Medical College.

Approving the draft of an addition to be made to rule 7 of the rules for the remand and dismissal of students in the Apothecary Department of the -- and directing its publication in the Fort St. George Gazette.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., No. 489, Educational, dated 9th August 1904.

ABSTRACT.—Considering that rule 7 of the rules for the remand and dismissal of students in the Apothecary Department of the — is necessary in the case of Colonial apprentices and female students and should be retained; and that a rule should be passed providing for the present practice of permitting dismissed Military pupils to complete their studies without refunding the stipends previously drawn by them on the condition that they eventually join the service; and requesting the Director of Public Instruction to submit the draft of such a rule.

READ—also the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 25th October 1904, Ref. on C. No. 3191.

As directed in paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 489, Educational, dated 9th August last, I have the honour to submit, for the approval of Government, a draft rule providing for dismissed military pupils of the Apothecary Department of the Medical College completing their studies in the College without refunding the stipends drawn by them. It may be added to rule 7 of the rules for the remand and dismissal of students of the Apothecary Department sanctioned in G.O., No. 374, Educational, dated 8th August 1903, and may run thus :—

“But in the case of military students who, with the permission of the Director-General, Indian Medical Service, and on the recommendation of the College Council, are permitted to continue their studies at their own cost, the refund will not be insisted on if they bind themselves to enter the Indian Subordinate Medical Department on the completion of their studies.”

A draft notification is submitted in duplicate for publication in the Fort St. George Gazette.

ENCLOSURE.

NOTIFICATION.

To rule 7 of the rules for the remand and dismissal of students in the Apothecary Department of the Medical College published on page 563 of Part I-B. of the issue of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 1st September 1903, add the following at the end :—

“But in the case of military students who, with the permission of the Director-General, Indian Medical Service, and on the recommendation of the College Council, are permitted to continue their studies at their own cost, the refund will not be insisted on if they bind themselves to enter the Indian Subordinate Medical Department on the completion of their studies.”

ORDER—No. 691, Educational, dated 23rd November 1904.
