The humble representation of Kollipara, V. Narasimharow a Student of V Form Noble College Masulipatam

Most Honoured Sir,

I humbly beg to represent that I passed completely, the Lower Secondary Examination in the year 1903 & my success was published in the Fort St George gazette supplement dated 7th April /03 Page 8 in my fomer name Perumalla, Seshavataram, as, when I applied for the examination, I bore that name. The circumstances which led to the change of my name are as follows - Some years ago I was taken and brought up by a widow who inted to adopt me some time after by formal ceremony - My surname & name before I was taken by her was Kollipara, Vemkata, Narasimharow. After she has taken me under her care she changed my original surname & name and gave me a difficult surname & name which is "Perumalla, Seshavataram, the surname being that of herself & the name being her choice one; while so I applied, for the Exn my success was published & a certificate was issued to me, all in that name – subsequently on account of certain ill advices of others she abandoned me so no adoption ceremony took place. I was therefore obliged to revert to my natural name & take up back my original surname & name "Kollipara, Venkata, Narasimharow."

As in the certificate and Gazette of success my name & surname appear to be those that were given to me by the above said widow, I humbly pray that the Govt may be pleased to direct that the change of my surname and name be published in the Fort St George Gazette so that there may be no difficulty to me in future in reaping the benefits of my success in the Lower secondary Exn

If I have to pay any charges on that account, I am ready to pay if directed – I have already addressed on the subject the supt. of Govt. Press & the commissioner U. C. S. Exn but none of them were pleased to reply me. I will change my name in college registers also. Please reply me by bearing.

Masulipatam }

For which act of kindness & favour,
I am in duty bound ever pray

Kollipara, Venkata Narasimharow

No. 2966. From K. V. Narasimha Rao, Student, Noble College, Masulipatam 19-10-04

Apparently, the petr. wants an "erratum" issued, amending the list of successful candidates. Will Edl. Dept. deal with the petn.?

Endorsement

The applicant is informed that the Govt. are not ~~is in no way~~ concerned with his change of name. [He ~~must~~ should communicate with the Supt., Govt. Press, in regard to the publication in the Fort St. George Gazette of any private advertisement on the subject which he may desire to make.]

The certificate cannot be altered

SECRETARIAT.

I do not see how any alteration can be effected in the certificate. The latter must issue in the name which petitioner bore when he entered for and passed the examination.

Are there any precedents

11-11-04

No exact precedent can be traced. In G.O. no. 223 Edl dated 29-5-00 the Principal of the College of Eng. was requested to alter the initials of one Kondapuram Murukesa Mudali appearing in the College certificate granted to him; but this is not a parallel one.

2. The applicant has not furnished any proof to substantiate his statement about the change of his name. We cannot order, on his mere word, any alteration in the certificate granted to him or notify the change in the Gazette.

3. The best way seems to be for the Applicant to notify the change of his name in the Gazette and he may be so informed.

Conditions on which private advertisements are accepted for the Gazette?

12-11-04

W

Please see the telephonic message from the S.G.P. placed below as to the conditions on which private advertisements are accepted for the Gazette. The message does not specify the kinds of advertisements that are received but change of names are usually advertised in the Gazette.

Submitted that any action in regard to the change of name must be taken by the petr. himself. He is not in Govt. employment. In the ~~[illegible]~~ of his certificate he will have to prove satisfactorily that he is the individual in whose name it was issued. The certificate cannot be altered or endorsed by Edl. Dept.
