To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Fort St. George.

Sir,

With reference to memorandum No. 699, Educational, dated 21st December 1903, I have the honour to state that I propose to appoint C. Doraiswami Aiyangar, as a clerk in the District Police Office, Bellary, on pay Rs. 15/- per mensem.

2. The Superintendent reports that no passed candidates have come forward even though he has advertised in the Fort Saint George Gazette and that some passed men who were offered the post declined to take it up. The present plague scare in Bellary prevents applicants from coming forward and they are difficult to procure at the best of times.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. S. Kullab

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 2073 From the Inspector-General of Police No 5026, dated 17.12.1903.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

The Inspector-General of Police recommends the permanent exemption of one C. Doraiswami Aiyangar for employment as a clerk in the district police office, Bellary. The only ground for the recommendation is that qualified candidates are not available. It is stated, however, that what steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate; nor is information furnished as to the pay of the appointment to which the Inspector-General wants to appoint Doraiswami Aiyangar. It is submitted that information on both points may be asked for. Bellary is no doubt a backward district but for permanent exemptions stronger grounds seem to be necessary.

In reply to the memo: above, the Inspector General says that he proposes to appoint Duraiswami Aiyangar as a clerk on Rs. 15 per mensem in the district police office, Ballary and that the District Superintendent reports that no passed candidates have come forward even though he has advertised in the Fort St. George Gazette and that some passed men who were offered the post declined to take it up. He further says that the present plague scare in Ballary prevents applicants from coming forward. For the reasons stated the exemption applied for may perhaps be now granted. A draft is placed below for approval.
