G.O., No. 636, Educational, dated 14th October 1902.

ABSTRACT.—Exempting certain localities from the operation of chapter II of the Educational rules, and directing that the exemption shall continue in force for a period of five years from the 1st April 1902.

READ—also the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 3rd December 1904, Ref. on C. No. 8896 of 1903.

In the list of backward localities sanctioned in G.O., No. 195, Educational, dated 2nd April 1897, no difference was made between boys' and girls' schools. When the list was revised in 1902 (vide G.O., No. 636, Educational, dated 14th October 1902) girls' schools received more liberal treatment in the matter of backward localities than boys' schools. I regret, however, that in the revised list a mistake had crept in which has just come to my notice, and which I wish to see rectified. In the first list the localities that were declared backward in the Trichinopoly district were Perambalur and Udayarpalaiyam taluqs and Turaiyur Zamindari in the Musiri taluq. When the list was revised the whole district was declared backward for girls' schools, excepting the municipal towns and Kasba stations: but in the case of boys' schools only the taluqs of Perambalur and Udayarpalaiyam were declared backward and nothing was said about the Kasba stations in these taluqs. This has resulted in the anomaly that whilst the Kasba stations in the above two taluqs are considered backward for boys' schools, so far as girls' schools are concerned they are not so considered. It was never intended that the boys' schools in these Kasba stations should have an advantage which is denied to girls' schools, and the omission to exclude the Kasba stations of the two taluqs referred to from the list of backward localities for boys' schools seems to have been due to an oversight. In these circumstances, I beg to request that the following alteration may be made in the list with regard to the Trichinopoly district, and that it may have effect from 1st April 1905 :—

In the list of backward localities approved in G.O., No. 636, Educational, dated 14th October 1902, for—boys' schools, Perambalur and Udayarpalaiyam taluqs, read—boy's schools, Perambalur and Udayarpalaiyam taluqs, excepting the Kasba stations,

ORDER—No. 726, Educational, dated 12th December 1904.

The alteration proposed by the Director of Public Instruction is approved and will take effect from 1st April 1905.

2. The necessary alteration will be made in the enclosure to the Director of Public Instruction's letter disposed of in G.O., No. 636, Educational, dated 14th October 1902.

Sir,

In the list of backward localities sanctioned in G.O.No. 195 Educational, dated 2nd April 1897, no difference was made between boys' and Girls' Schools. When the list was revised in 1902 (vide G.O.No. 636 Educational, dated 14th October 1902) girls' schools received more liberal treatment in the matter of backward localities than boys' schools. I regret, however, that in the revised list a mistake had crept in which has just come to my notice, and which I wish to see rectified.
