To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to report that the senior personal allowance of Rs 250-50-500 which was granted to me in G.O.

O. No. 525, Educational, dated, 21st October 1903, is now available.

P. 2. Under the orders contained in G.O. No. 627, Educational, dated, 1st November 1901, of the four allowances which may be granted to officers of the Indian Educational service, one senior allowance is reserved for the Principal of the Presidency college the other senior allowance and the two junior allowances are open alike to the Principals of the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry colleges, the two Inspectors and the two senior professors of the Presidency college.

3. Mr. Bilderbeck is Principal of the Presidency college, Messrs Logan and Mayhew are the two Inspectors referred to in the Secretary of State's despatch, Messrs Hunter and Duncan are the Principals of Rajahmundry and Kumbakonam colleges, respectively, and Messrs Jones and Allen are the two senior professors of the Presidency college who are also officers of the Indian Educational service. Mr. Bilderbeck receives one of the senior allowances and Messrs Logan and Stone the two junior allowances. Mr. Stone's allowance was granted to him while Principal of the Kumbakonam college: he is now as Inspector of European and Training schools not strictly speaking eligible for an allowance nor is Mr. Middlemast as Deputy Director.

4. It may be held that in creating a third Inspector's post in the Indian Educational service the Secretary of State naturally extended to it all the privileges pertaining to the other two.

5. With regard to the post of Deputy Director it was, I believe, understood that it would probably be held by any particular officer for a year or two only, in any case it is not desirable that it should be considered as naturally leading up to the Directorship. An officer already in receipt of a personal allowance might hold it for a time while an officer holding it when an allowance which might be given to him fell vacant should not in my opinion lose his chance merely because he held the post at the time. It is moreover undesirable to limit the choice of an officer for the post which might be the case if he were placed at a disadvantage by holding it.

6. At the present time the senior allowance available should be granted to Mr. Logan or Mr. Stone. With regard to the junior allowance thereby set free, Mr. Middlemast has spent all his service in posts in which he was eligible for it and is likely to hold such a post again when he ceases to be Deputy Director. He might now very well claim to turn out any one of his juniors Messrs Mayhew, Littlehales, Duncan, or Hunter and thus become eligible but I am very unwilling to spare him just at present. With regard to the relative claims of Messrs Logan and Stone to the senior allowance I am hardly in a position to offer an opinion at present. I know nothing of Mr. Logan's work. He is nearly as much senior to Mr. Stone as he was to me and I am inclined to think that unless there was some strong reason, which still holds good, for passing him over on the previous occasion that the allowance should now be given to him. I may point out that Mr. Stone obtained his junior allowance much earlier than he could have had any expectation of so doing and that if the rules when first framed had been as they now are that allowance would probably have been given to me. I hope that it will be possible by obtaining sanction for the individual case if necessary to give the junior allowance to Mr. Middlemast.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. R. Bowring
Director of Public Instruction.
