EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 745, 746, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 17TH DECEMBER 1904.

[SUBJECT—Catalogue of Books.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 9744, dated 29th November 1904.

The Director now submits to Government printed copies of the Catalogue of Books registered during the third quarter of 1904 together with the report of the Registrar relating thereto. The usual draft order directing the publication of the catalogue in the Fort St. George Gazette and transmission of copies to the Secretary of State and the Government of India is submitted below for approval.

2. It is respectfully submitted that this catalogue was submitted in proof direct to Government on the 14th ultimo by the Registrar of Books and the proof was revised in the office and sent to the Press for publication in the gazette of the 22nd November last. As it was already published on the 22nd ultimo, it looks anomalous that an order should issue now directing the publication of the catalogue that was already published. It is for consideration whether it would not be better to make arrangements, at least for the future, for the publication of the catalogue in the gazette subsequent to the date of the order directing its publication. If this suggestion is approved, the Registrar of Books may be asked to submit his next catalogue in proof direct to Government as usual, and his report on the catalogue through the Director a day or two later so that it may be received here before the proof revision of the catalogue is completed in this office. Then the order directing the publication of the catalogue may be issued, dispensing with the present anomalous procedure which has long been in vogue.

[G.O., Nos. 745, 746, Educational, dated 17th December 1904.]

A draft memorandum to the Registrar of Books is submitted below for approval.

K.K.M.—12-12-04.

A. GALLETTI—13-12-04.

A typed copy of the draft as approved by the Assistant Secretary is submitted for his perusal. Orders are requested as to whether the order may issue as it is. The order would seem to need some revision.

The Registrar now submits the following to Government:—

- (1) Proof of the catalogue.
- (2) His report on the catalogue.
- (3) Printed copies of the catalogue published in the gazette after approval by Government.

Item No. 1 is received direct and items Nos. 2 and 3 together through the Director of Public Instruction. The order now to issue requires the Registrar to submit items Nos. 1 and 2 direct and a copy of No. 1 through the Director of Public Instruction. No. 3 will be discontinued. No. 1 will be of no use to the Director of Public Instruction without No. 2, and it seems necessary that Government should have No. 2 with the remarks or suggestions by the Director of Public Instruction, if any. It is therefore submitted that the Registrar be directed to submit to Government direct item No. 1 only and through the Director of Public Instruction No. 2 together with a copy of No. 1, or as an alternative arrangement to submit Nos. 1 and 2 direct to Government and a copy of each of them also through the Director of Public Instruction without delay.

V. KRISHNASWAMI—13-12-04.

A. GALLETT—14-12-04.

All that it is necessary to see to is that the catalogue should not be published before the report has been received and reviewed by Government.

2. No. 3 should be discontinued. Nos. 1 and 2 should be submitted to Government through the Director of Public Instruction.
