To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit herewith for the orders of Government an application in the prescribed form on behalf of Sayyid Mohideen, an acting daloget of my office for exemption from the examination rules.

2. Sayyid Mohideen is a young man of about 22 years. He has been acting in my office as daloget for the last 4 years. He is smart and hardworking and comes of a respectable family. Having passed in 3 compulsory subjects of the Primary Examination he knows to read and write Tamil well and understands a bit of English. As he has not passed in the optional subjects he has not got the Primary Examination Certificate and is therefore debarred from being permanently entertained in the public service as daloget of my office unless he is exempted by Government from passing the Primary Examination.

3. I would not submit this for the favourable consideration of Government had it not been for the fact that personally I know him to be a trustworthy man of good behaviour.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

C. No. 9 From the Col. of Coimbatore No 3918, dated 21-12-1903.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination rules.

In the circumstances reported by the Collector, the exemption applied for may perhaps be granted. A draft is placed below for approval.

Ru
2/14 Orders are solicited. The Collector has not advanced any special reason except that the man is trustworthy & well behaved. He is young still and ought to be able to ~~finish~~ complete the primary examination without much difficulty. There seems thus

PH
4/1/4 to be a case for temporary exemption only at present.
1.2.4 My 5.1.4

Surely men of 22 can't be expected to
* go to a Primary School & pass the exam.
I have passed the draft put up.

PH
5.1.4

* Submitted that there is no objection to such men appearing as private candidates.
