To

The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that an attender's post in my office is vacant and that I should like to appoint Govindu, a Masalchi in this office, to the vacancy. He, however, has not passed the Primary school examination, the test prescribed for an attender. He has, however, put in about 8½ years' service and is a good hard working servant. I therefore recommend that you will move Government for the permanent exemption of Govindu from the Primary School Examination rules.

I have the honour to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant
