Fort Saint George.

Sir,

With reference to Memorandum No. 652, dated 17th December 1904, I have the honour to report that Venkata Chari whose exemption from the examination rules has been recommended is a 3rd grade head constable on pay Rs. 16/- per mensem and that it is proposed to employ him as a clerk on Rs. 15/- per mensem with the chance of rising up to a maximum of Rs. 25/-, which is also the pay of a 1st grade head constable.

2. The Superintendent reports that in spite of several notices published in the District and Fort Saint George Gazettes inviting passed candidates, none have offered themselves and that consequently, he has been compelled to fill up six such vacancies temporarily by unpassed men.

3. In these circumstances, I request that the exemption sought for, may be sanctioned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

C. No. 2129 From the S. G. of Police. No 5885, dated 7-12-1904.

SUBJECT.

Permanent Exemption from the Examination rules.

Orders are solicited as to whether the permanent exemption applied for should be granted. The S. G. says that it is proposed to employ V. Venkata Chari, a head Constable, as clerk in the District Police Office at Anantapur and that the services of passed men are not available. Venkata Chari has passed only the Middle School examination and it is not stated what the salary of his appointment is. The S. G. also does not say what steps were taken to secure a qualified man. He may perhaps be asked in the first instance for information on these points.
