My dear Taylor

In reply to your Confidential Do. Rmo. No. 7 of 19 June - Miss Person has already a substantive appointment in the service and may be recommended for promotion to the Indian Educational Service upon some subsequent occasion when there is a vacancy.

I fear I cannot at present recommend that any hopes should be held out to her of such promotion.

She acted for some time as Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses and Miss Pettit-Coward reported adversely upon the state of the school when the task charge and attributed that state to weakness in the management. I also consulted Maj. Carr at the time as to her opinion of Miss Parsons and this was distinctly unfavourable. I am now giving her a trial as Assistant Inspectress under Miss Arnold and have learned her that she has not hitherto earned the good opinion of her superior officers. She may improve and I am unwilling to permanently injure her prospects - As she is already in the service and as there

5-8/90 is at present no vacancy in the Indian Educational service it seems hardly necessary to take any action at present.

Yours sincerely
A. G. Bowring

In the circumstances stated $5000 it is submitted that the Govt. ought to find that this Govt. have no special remuneration make a bequest by persons.
