JANUARY.

Mr. R. Ll. Jones.

Granting to — a special allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem with effect from the 4th October 1904.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General), dated Madras, 24th November 1904, Ref. on Cur. No. 8957.

I have the honour to submit, for the orders of Government, the enclosed letter, dated 12th October last, from Mr. R. Ll. Jones, Professor of Physics, Presidency College, applying for the special allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem, allowed under paragraph 9 of the Government of India Resolution No. 4/204-215, Educational, dated 23rd July 1896, sanctioning the reorganization of the Educational Service. This special allowance is given to an officer whose total salary after fifteen years' service does not exceed Rs. 1,000 per mensem and in G.O., No. 30, Educational, dated 21st January 1902, it was ruled that the allowance would not be continued to an officer who drew another allowance raising his salary to over Rs. 1,000 per mensem. I am not sure whether the expression "another allowance" in the Government order quoted above should be taken to mean allowances drawn in this department or whether it includes allowances drawn in other departments. In the present case, Mr. Jones is in receipt of a local allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem as Superintendent of the Madras Observatory which is an appointment outside this department and the work in connection with which is done by him during hours which would not be otherwise occupied in college work. The special allowance of Rs. 100 is for work done in this department and I beg to request that, if the allowance is admissible, the necessary orders may be issued to the Accountant-General.

ENCLOSURE.

From R. Ll. JONES, Esq., Professor of Physics, Presidency College, to the Director of Public Instruction (through the Principal, Presidency College), dated Madras, 12th October 1904.

I have the honour to submit, herewith, my application for sanction to draw pay at the rate of Rs. 1,100 per month on and from the 4th October 1904, having completed 15 years' service on the 3rd October 1904.

No. G. 1059/9854.

Forwarded to Government.

2. Mr. R. Ll. Jones draws pay at Rs. 1,000 per mensem as Professor of Physics, Presidency College, and a local allowance of Rs. 300 as Meteorological Reporter and Deputy Director, Madras Observatory.

3. The proposal of the Government of India in regard to the special allowance of Rs. 100, which was accepted by the Secretary of State, is contained in paragraph 6 of their despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 351 of the 11th of December 1895. The recommendation was that the allowance should be given to officers not drawing one of the personal allowances recommended for the service. The sanction to the special allowance given in the latter portion of paragraph 9 of the Government of India resolution in the Home Department, No. 4-Edn./204-215 of the 23rd of July 1896, to the effect that the special allowance may be given to officers whose "total salary does not exceed Rs. 1,000" must be read in conjunction with the recommendation made to and accepted by the Secretary of State. This too is warranted by the wording of the previous portion of paragraph 9 of the resolution of 23rd July 1896.

4. The term "salary" used in the last-mentioned resolution cannot be considered as including the allowances sanctioned for the Meteorological and Observatory work which is work outside Mr. Jones' ordinary duties and which is intended to be carried on in addition to the duties of an officer's substantive appointment. These are extra allowances for special additional work unconnected with the work of the Educational Department. It may also be mentioned that local allowances are not included under "salary" in the definition of that term given in article 38 of the Civil Service Regulations.

5. Mr. R. Ll. Jones having completed fifteen years' service on the 3rd October 1904 and not being in receipt of one of the personal allowances sanctioned for Indian Educational Service, there is therefore no audit objection to the grant to him of the special allowance of Rs. 100 a month from the 4th October 1904, if he is considered by Government to merit this increase of pay.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
1st December 1904.

W. DOBBIE,
Accountant-General.

ORDER—No. 10, Educational, dated 11th January 1905.

A special allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem is granted to Mr. R. Ll. Jones with effect from the 4th of October 1904.

2. The Director of Public Instruction should submit a reappropriation statement showing how it is proposed to meet the charge during the current year.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 10, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 11TH JANUARY 1905.

[SUBJECT.—*Grant of a Special Allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem to Mr. R. L. Jones,
Professor of Physics, Presidency College.*]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 8957, dated 24th November 1904.

„ Accountant-General, No. G. 1059/9854, dated 1st December 1904.

In paragraph 9 of the resolution of the Government of India, Home Department (Education), No. 4/204-215, dated 23rd July 1896, on page 7 of G.O., No. 479, Educational, dated 10th August 1896, it was decided to give a special allowance of Rs. 100 a month after 15 years' service to officers in the Indian Educational Service whose total salary did not exceed Rs. 1,000 per mensem and who were considered by the Local Government to merit this increase of pay.

2. Mr. Jones, Professor of Physics, Presidency College, now makes an application for the grant of the special allowance referred to from the 4th of October last, on the ground that he completed his 15 years' service on the 3rd idem. His pay as Professor of Physics is Rs. 1,000 per mensem; and as Superintendent of the Madras Observatory he draws a local allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem, which will thus raise his salary to over Rs. 1,000 per mensem. The difficulty that confronts Dr. Bourne is whether the grant of the special allowance in question necessitates the discontinuance of the local allowance Mr. Jones now draws. Dr. Bourne's doubt is whether the ruling contained in G.O., No. 30, Educational, dated 21st January 1902, that an officer who draws another allowance which raises his salary to over Rs. 1,000 per mensem cannot continue to draw the special allowance, has application in the present case and whether the expression "another allowance" means allowances drawn in the Educational Department or includes allowances drawn in other Departments. It is submitted that the decision of Government arrived at in G.O., No. 30, Educational, dated 21st January 1902, does not affect the present case, as the circumstances under which sanction to the continuance of the special allowance was then refused were very different from those now under consideration. Further the expression "another allowance" does not appear to include the allowance drawn in other Departments, but was apparently intended to include allowances in the Educational Department such as personal allowances recommended by the Government of India for the Indian Educational Service. This view is supported by the Accountant-General—vide paragraphs 3 and 4 of his endorsement No. G-1059/9854, dated 1st December 1904. There does not therefore seem to be any objection to the grant of the special allowance now claimed by Mr. Jones.

3. The question then for consideration is whether the allowance should be granted. The Director states that, if the allowance is admissible, orders to this effect may issue to the Accountant-General. Orders are however solicited.

N. LAKSHMANA RAO—5-12-04.

In G.O., No. 403, Educational, dated 28th August 1903, the special allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem claimed by Mr. Alfred Chatterton was refused to him on the ground that his salary including the deputation allowance of Rs. 150 which he was

This was in his own Department.

H. D. TAYLOR. drawing in connection with the development of technical industrial education exceeded Rs. 1,000. This deputation allowance was not a personal allowance, and yet Mr. Chatterton was refused the special allowance of Rs. 100. The question now for consideration is whether the expression "total salary" in paragraph 9 of the Government of India resolution on page 7 of G.O., No. 479, Educational, dated 10th August 1896, includes or not the local allowance such as that drawn by Mr. Jones for his work in a Department other than his own.

V. KRISHNASWAMI—6-12-04.

As pointed out by the Accountant-General, the allowance is admissible. There can be little doubt that the Accountant-General's interpretation of India's resolution is correct, and that the special Rs. 100 allowance is only barred when the Educational salary plus allowances is over Rs. 1,000 without it.

2. But the question whether the allowance, though admissible, should or should not under the circumstances be given, still remains to be decided. India's resolution did not decide that it should be given in these cases; these cases were not considered by India; and it is accordingly within the discretion of the Government to give or not to give.

A. GALLETTI—7-12-04.

The allowance drawn by Mr. Jones is in connection with work outside his own Department.

2. If Mr. Jones is held to be a "meritorious officer" in respect of his work in the Educational Department, the allowance may be given.

H. D. TAYLOR—9-12-04.

The allowance should be given to Mr. Jones.

J. T[HOMSON]—10-12-04.

The file is resubmitted. It was circulated first to Honourable Member, but appears to have been sent on to His Excellency the Governor without being seen. Please see slip enclosed.

H. D. TAYLOR—12-12-04.

Yes, no objection. There was no important principle involved requiring circulation beyond the Member in charge.
