District Judge,
South Canara.

To
The Registrar,
High Court of Judicature,
M a d r a s.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the High Court will be pleased to move the Government to exempt Abdul Rasool, 2nd Grade Amin of the District Munsif's Court, Karkal on Rs. 15 from passing the Matriculation Examination with Hand writing and Dictation Test and to declare him eligible for promotion to posts carrying salary of upwards of Rs. 15 per mensem.

2. He entered Government service as a Forester on Rs. 30 in 1892 but was obliged to resign the post owing to ill-health. In 1896 in the Judicial Department he was first entertained as 3rd grade amin in the Kundapur Munsif's Court on Rs. 12. In 1902 on the recommendation of the High Court the Govt. was pleased to exempt him from the examination rules with a view to his promotion to the post of 2nd grade amin on Rs. 15 (High Court Proceedings No. 454/5-8-02) He was since promoted to the post of 2nd grade amin the duties of which he is found to have discharged creditably. He passed the Middle School Examination in the 1st class in 1890. Under the Rules then in force he was eligible for posts carrying Rs. 15 and upwards and would be so now if there were no break in his service.

The District Munsifs under whom he served have expressed very good opinion as to his abilities, character and conduct. There are very few Mahamadans employed in the superior service in the Judicial Department in this District and Abdul Rasool belongs to a respectable Mahamadan family.

In G.P. n^o. 454 Est. of 5-8-02 Abd. ur. Rasul, who was then employed as a third grade Amin on Rs. 12/ in the District Munsif's Court of Karkhal, was permanently exempted from the examination rules for promotion to the post of Second grade Amin on Rs. 15/ in the District of South Canara.

2. The District Judge now applies for Abd. ur. Rasul's exemption for further promotion to posts carrying salary of more than Rs. 15 per mensem in the Judicial Department. In support of this application he repeats what has already been said on the previous occasion that "the D. J. Munsifs, under whom Abd. ur. Rasul has served, have expressed very good opinion as to his abilities, character and conduct", that "there are very few muhammadians employed in the superior service in the Judicial Department in the District" and that "Abd. ur. Rasul belongs to a respectable muhammadian family". Abd. ur. Rasul has ^{however} passed only the middle school examination ^(in the first class) and the High Court merely forward the Dist. Judge's letter for the orders of Government.
