The Chief Secretary to Government,
Judicial Department.

Fort St. George.

Sir,

One of the European Bailiffs of this office having died, Mr. E. A. J. Ballard has been appointed as Acting Bailiff, from the 13th of December 1904, on a salary of Rs 40 per mensem, as being of the various applicants the best suited for the work of that post.

2. Mr. E. A. J. Ballard was employed for about 21 years in the Madras Railway Company as Head Clerk in the Traffic Manager's Office and as a Station Master in the said Company. His service was transferred to the South Indian Railway Company, by whom he was employed for about 8 years as a Station Master. He left both the Companies with good conduct certificates.

3. He was educated in the Bishop Cotton's High School at Bangalore and in the Devon Protestant College at Madras, but he has passed none of the examinations prescribed in the Public Service Notification for admission to Superior Government service. He possesses sufficient knowledge of English, Tamil, Telugu, Malayalam and Hindustani, which will enable him, I believe, to discharge his duties as a Bailiff. He is 48 years of age and possesses good physique.

4. I have therefore the honor to request that Government may be pleased to exempt Mr. E. A. J. Ballard from the operation of the Rules contained in the Public Service Notification, prescribing examinations for his admission to the service of this office, as a Bailiff.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Chas. Pearce
Sheriff of Madras.
