Madam.

Sir,

The Tahsildar of Kadur and his wife. The head accountant Kadur. Most respected Sir. I, J. Venkatasubbiah Rs 15 Clerk of Kadur Taluk office, most humbly and respectfully beg to submit the following for your consideration and favour. I am employed in the office as Copyist Clerk on Rs 15-0-0. I have been doing my duty without any complaint. The satisfaction of my superior officers.

As I am an unpassed Candidate, I have no hope of promotion. It will not be out of place for me, to state here, that I have been serving in this Revenue department for the last 20 years; but to my misfortune I was not recommended for any permanent posting till 1901, in which year I was made a Copest clerk on Rs 15 permanently. I submit ¹ that that I knew all the branches of the 2 fully ² fully Taluk office work and for the fully 3 fully of my being an unpassed Candidate ⁴ fully I was not given any promotion. I beg leave to submit that the marginally noted Talukdars under whom I served may be consulted as to how I have been discharging my duties.
 The present Talukdars under whom

I have been serving how may also be consulted about my qualifications.
 I request therefore your honour to kindly recommend me for a permanent exemption up to Rs 20-- for which I submit I am qualified I am a poor man having a large family depending upon me for their maintenance. I am to sorry to leave this public service for my maintenance. It will be a matter of pure charity if this concession is given to me and I will ever pray for your honours long life and prosperity.
 I beg to remain

he has been turning out more work than what a couple of clerks could do in all due to his systematic mode of working. He is a beautiful branches of work in the Taluk Office. I strongly recommend that his progress may be viewed favourably.

From

To

The Collector

of

Cuddapah.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith the applications of T. Venkatasubbiah and R. Raja Rao, clerks of the Kadiri Taluk office, for exemption from Examination rules.

2. No. 1 is a permanent clerk on Rs. 15, but an unpassed candidate. For the last ten years he has been serving in the Revenue Department and was able to secure a permanent post only in 1901. He requests exemption upto Rs. 20. No. 2 is a Matriculate without handwriting. Though his writing is moderately fair and quite legible he has not been successful in the Examination since 1898. He requests therefore that he may be exempted from that test which is wanting to make him fully qualified.

3. Both of them have been strongly recommended by the Tahsildar on the ground that they are conversant with Taluk work.
During my inspection of the Taluk office, I was thoroughly satisfied with their work. At present three out of the eight Rs.
17½ places are permanently held by unpassed men and one is filled in temporarily by another unpassed candidate. The rest are occupied by raw and inexperienced youths, who have not put in sufficient service. In the Rs. 15 posts 20 out of 22 are unpassed men and they have no chance of promotion. Consequently when a passed man is available he gets at the very start ^{a permanent} ~~pukka~~ appointment and is also lifted up to Rs. 17½ on the simple ground that

Taluk office

that he is qualified for it by the examination rules although he is ignorant of even the very elements of the work of the Revenue Department. As vacancies occur in the higher grades they are kept vacant for want of passed men. In spite of advertisements in the Gazette, I have not been able to get qualified men. The applicants like other unpassed men who hold permanent appointments are intelligent and well trained, but the examination rules stand in their way of promotion or confirmation. As they have well earned the concession they now seek, I support the Tahsildar's recommendation. It is better to have men who thoroughly know the Taluk work drawing the pay of the work they do, rather than, as at present, having to put raw Matriculates into the better paid posts and employing the unpassed but competent men to do their work, though giving them the pay of the lowest grade. There is, in my opinion, not the least chance of getting passed men to join the Division, now that plague has appeared and the place has become to outsiders thoroughly unhealthy with fever and dysentery.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Sd.) F.A. Coleridge,

Ag. Sub-Collector.

subject. Exemption from the Examination Rule

In Coleridge's argument are rather against the of a 7th class exemption. But have been passed on such a scale to the Cuddapah S. that the lower posts are blocked with unpassed men. The fact is that the passed men are appointed to posts as they know that their promotion is likely to be more rapid to the grade above R.O.

The new law recommended have in mind qualification - at least to give broadness to this.

The exemption applied for cannot be granted
