The humble representation of Mahomed Rahamthulla Sahib Faroki 5th Grade Sub Inspector, Salt Abkari and Customs Department Kanuparti Circle, Nellore Sub Division.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

That Your Excellency's petitioner while feeling deeply grateful for his exemption from examination rules for employment in the Salt Department sanctioned in G. O. No. 27 Educational dated 20th January 1902, most humbly prays for another concession of a like nature being granted to him.

2. Your Excellency's humble petitioner will not take up Your Excellency's time by entering into the details of his case but earnestly trusts that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to favourably consider the reasonableness and the moderation of his request and thus allow Your Excellency's distinguished name to be associated with the good and great cause of Mahomedan British subjects in this Presidency.

3. Your Excellency's petitioner is connected with the family of Mahomed Abbos Alli Khan Sahib Bahadur Nawab of Udayagiri and his forefathers were also recipients of the carnatic stipends granted by Mahomed Ali Walajah Nawab of carnatic, the successive members of which have rendered meritorious service to British benign Government ever since the auspicious commencement of their rule in India. Though not of a European parentage, yet it is thus obvious that the manners, living and habits of the petitioner would equally require as much money as is required for living in the fashion of respectable Mahomedans. Taking all this into consideration the Government was graciously pleased to exempt the petitioner's brother-in-law from the examination rules and give him a decent footing (Inspectorship) in the Police Department. He died suddenly leaving a widow and children to bitterly bemoan his loss. Further the petitioner's father was a Police 1st Class Inspector who has now retired. In appreciation of the long and good work done by him in the Police Department and as a mark of distinction, he was given a certificate by the Government of India during the time of Diamond Jubilee of Her Late Most Gracious lamented Majesty and copy of the same is enclosed. Instances of the good done by the Government to men of high birth are too many to be mentioned here.

4. In the career of the petitioner's life, perhaps there is an evil star, he does not know. Unfortunately to his disadvantage he entered the Salt Department. As the pay of the last grade of Sub Inspectors is Rs. 30, he was not given more. Brother officers in the last grade in some other Departments, say Police or so, get about Rs. 70. He would therefore like, in order to maintain his station in life to seek an employment in other Departments where he may get a decent pay to start with. With this end in view he begs leave to approach Your Excellency with this petition with a warm hope that he will be crowned with success.

5. Under the above circumstances the petitioner most humbly begs that he may be exempted from the examination rules for admission to the public service irrespective of some department (at least Forest and Jail Departments) to enable him to secure a post which will carry with it a pay sufficient for the expenses of high class of people.

6. Government have also ruled that as the Europeans and Eurasians cannot maintain their position with a small sum, they should not be appointed on a pay less than Rs. 50 per mensem and that persons of European habits should be treated alike in some cases. Though it is not clearly laid down, yet the petitioner thinks, it is the spirit of the Government that those persons whose living is costly should not be given less than Rs. 50 per mensem. The petitioner would mention here for Your Excellency's information that the sum of Rs. 30 which he now gets is hardly sufficient for him and that he is experiencing the greatest difficulties. Besides he has to maintain a large family and a widowed sister and her children.

7. Your Excellency's petitioner ventures most humbly to solicit some share of that kindness Your Excellency so frequently bestows upon the Mahomedans, in order to enable him to get a suitable post which by industrious application will enable him to support himself and family.

8. Your Excellency's petitioner will walk in the footsteps of his forefathers and do faithful service to Government.

9. Your Excellency's petitioner in conclusion most earnestly pray for such a moment when the blessing of Your Excellency's clemency will be brought to him. He need not state that for Your Excellency's act of kindness and charity God will reward Your Excellency and he, shall as in duty bound, ever pray for Your Excellency's health and prosperity.

Your Excellency's humble petitioner,

Ind. Rahamthulla Haroki

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules

N. In G.O. no. 27 Est. of 20th January 1902, the petitioner, Muhammad Rahmat-ullah sahib Faruki, was exempted from the examination rules for employment in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department. He was originally a petty officer but is now a fifth grade salt inspector on Rs. 30 in that Department. Not being however content with his present salary he requests that he may be given a general exemption so that he may seek employment in other Departments.
