Sir,

In submitting the representation of Boddupalli Veera-raghavayya, ag. 7th clerk, Taluk office, Bapatla, seeking for permanent exemption from the Hand writing test, I have the -- honour to state as follows:-

The applicant passed the Matriculation Examination in the year 1898 and has been appearing for the Handwriting - test for the last five years without success. He is the permanent attender, Bapatla Taluk Office, on Rs.7 and has put in an acting service of nearly five years and a half. He is well-spoken well of by the Tahsildar under whom he serves as a -- clerk.

Mr.Harris late Sub Collector of Guntur recommended his exemption from the test. All extract of his opinion is enclosed along with the application. I agree with Mr.Harris.
The applicant appears to write quite as well as most of those who hold the qualification. I hear that Government has been pleased to exempt 3 or 4 cases in Kistna on the application - of Mr.Parsons. I therefore request that Veeraraghavayya's -- case may also be favourably considered. Passed candidates are in any case not easily to be had in this district.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. S. Harris
For Collector. 6/1/05

To,
The collector,
Suntur District

Through,

The Sub collector,
Ongole Division

The humble representation of Bodanalli Viranaghavayya, ag 7th clerk, Banatta Taluk office.

Most honoured sir,

I beg to submit that I passed Matriculation examination in the year 1898 and ever since I have been working as a clerk in the Taluk offices. I have appeared for the Hand-writing and Dictation Test several times but without success.

Becoming hopeless, I laid my poor case before Sub collector L. J. Harris Esquire, who was pleased to recommend to the collector of Krishna District about me very strongly for permanent exemption from passing Hand-writing and Dictation Test.

I enclose copies of the endorsements of the then Tahsildar and Mr Harris on my petition.

3. But J.C. Parsons Esquire, who originally had been pleased to call from the Divisional officers for lists of candidates, deserving permanent exemption, seems afterwards to have recommended only 3 candidates, one J.A. and two matriculates for permanent exemption from the Hand-writing and Dictation Test.

4. As I was unfortunately for myself, excluded from the list, although I was the only candidate recommended by Mr L. J. Harris in the late Guntur Division, (4 Taluks) I went to Masulipattam and appealed to J.C. Parsons Esquire, but he was pleased to say that he would not recommend me as I was going to belong to a new District. All this took place just before the bifurcation of Districts.

5. I now beg to submit, that I am the permanent attender of Bapatla Taluk office and have put in acting service of about 5 years as a clerk on Rs 15. I beg to enclose a statement showing the various appointments held by me.

6. The two matriculates recommended by the collector, Kistna, are, otherwise inferior to me in qualifications as they have put in less service than myself, and have also no permanent footing in the Government service.

7. I have & just heard that they have already been favoured with permanent situations of Rs 15 in the Kistna District in virtue of the exemptions recently obtained.

8. Another hardship I have been subjected to off and on is that, while it will be conceded that even Rs 15 are hardly sufficient for maintaining my poor big family, I should be paid even less than that figure on account of changes in the higher appointments connected with my acting situation.

9. I respectfully venture to leave it to your gracious honor to consider how hard it will be for me to seal my official career as a permanent attender on Rs 7 after my faithful service of so many years as an acting clerk on Rs 15; and in conclusion, pray that your honor will be mercifully pleased to consider my pitiable case favourably and recommend me for exemption from the Hand-writing and Dictation Test permanently as in the aforesaid similar cases in Kistna District.

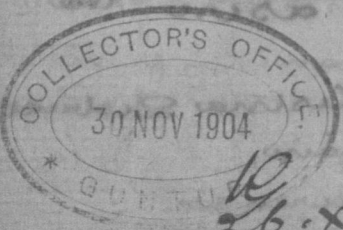

I beg to remain,
Most honoured sir,
Your most obedient servant,
B. Viraraghavaya
97th Clerk.

1837 of 1904
Submitted to the Sub collector for consideration and transmission to the Collector.

2. The applicant's case is rather hard seeing that at the last moment when everything was ready for the submission of his application to the Board, he had been deprived of the recommendations of the Board. I have therefore recommended that the applicant be exempted from the
Hand-writing Test.
The applicant has been acting as a Rs 15 clerk for the last 5 years.
The Tahsildar of Bahadur states that the applicant is industrious and attentive and knows many branches of office work. I therefore recommend that the applicant may be exempted from the
Hand-writing Test.

Submitted for favourable consideration and recommendation.
(2) The applicant's case is really pitiable and deserves consideration. He matriculated more than 5 years ago and has ever since been in Government service and learnt many branches of office work. He is industrious and attentive and holds the permanent attender's place of this office. He has been for a number of years acting as a Rs 15 clerk and certainly deserves to permanently enter the Superior service.
(3) I have no hesitation to strongly recommend his case for favourable consideration for exemption permanently from the Hand-writing Test.

Divisional officer's remarks.

The applicant passed his matriculation examination more than 5 years ago and ever since he has been appearing for his Hand-writing Test but he has not passed although his handwriting is not at all bad. The applicant is the permanent attender of Bahadur and he has been acting as a Rs 15 clerk for the last 5 years.
The Tahsildar of Bahadur states that the applicant is industrious, attentive and knows many branches of office work. The Tahsildar strongly recommends for exemption permanently from his hand-writing Test. I therefore recommend that the applicant may be exempted from the
