No. 96 Misc.

The Hon. Mr. A.E. Castlestuart Stuart I.C.S.

Commr. of Rev. Sett and Director of L.R. and Agri:

READ the following letter from D.G. Hatchell Esquire, Superintendent, Madras Survey, No. 889/R, dated 26th December 1904:-

I have the honour to state that the revised scale of establishment of the central Survey Office provides for a Head Clerk on Rs. 70. The present holder of this appointment is M.R.Ry K. Srinivasa Chari, pay Rs. 50. He is not eligible for promotion as he has not passed the Precis Writing Test, nor can he appear for the test as he has passed only the late Middle School Examination.

N.B vide G.O. J/5-84 Edn. 11-9-56 The concession to Middle School Examⁿ men to appear for special tests expired in 1902.

But he is an efficient clerk having been employed as such since his entertainment in 1891. He has been performing the duties of Head Clerk for the past three years and I am thoroughly satisfied with his work.

Mr. Ramaswamy Naidu, Assistant Superintendent in charge of the Central Office, is of opinion that the work of the Correspondence Section will suffer if another man be appointed as Head Clerk.

M.R.Ry Srinivasachari is fully deserving of promotion and I beg that he may be exempted from the Precis Writing Test.

2. The Board makes no special recommendation and it is not desirable that posts of head clerks in important offices should be filled by men of low educational attainments who have been specially exempted for the purpose.
3. The fact that the individual is held to be 'indispensable' is not a recommendation in favour of his promotion and exemption. There can be no difficulty in obtaining a qualified man for the post. I would refuse the exemption applied for.
