To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Local and Municipal Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the Public Works Department may be instructed to transfer the site of the old Salt and Abkari Assistant Commissioner's office at Calicut to the Educational Department. It will be at present used as a school garden for the government training school, Calicut and will be available if necessary at some later date for a building for the School of Commerce.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. S. S. Manandhar
Director of Public Instruction.

C. No. 77 From the Director of Public Instruction No. 9444, dated 17-1-1905.

SUBJECT.

Transfer of the Site of the old Salt and Abkari Assistant Commissioner's office at Calicut to the Educational Department.

It is not known to what use the site in question is now put. The Public Works Department will, in any case, have to decide whether the site can be spared for the purpose. For orders as to whether the Director's proposal may be approved and the letter transferred to the P.W.D. for the issue of necessary orders.
