Copy of letter from the District Judge of Kurnool, to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, dated 31st January 1905, No.13.

I have the honour to forward herewith an application for permanent exemption from Examination Rules of P. Venkoji Rao for the permanent 6th clerk's post on Rs.15 in the District Munsif's Court of Nandiyai.

2. The permanent incumbent having been temporarily appointed to act as 4th clerk on Rs.17 of the District Munsif's Court of Markapur and no passed candidate being available, said P. Venkoji Rao, 3rd class Amin of the Court, was appointed to act as 6th clerk for three months from the 16th October last under exemption Rules to get through the work. This clerk's post has since fallen vacant permanently. No passed candidate applies for it, though invited by advertisements in the Fort St. George Gazette. The District Munsif speaks to Venkoji Rao's good work and recommends his permanent exemption for holding the 6th clerk's post.

3. As it is almost impossible to secure passed men for clerk's posts on Rs.15 in this district, as already represented in my letter of the 16th instant, No.4, I recommend that sanction of Government may be obtained exempting said P. Venkoji Rao from the Examination Rules for the 6th clerk's post on Rs.15 in the District Munsif's Court of Nandiyai.

C. No. 224 From the Registrar High Court No. 322, dated 6-2-1905.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination rules.

How many exemptions for Judicial posts have been granted in Kurnool in the last 6 months?

H.D.T.
8-2-05.

An examination of the Educational Tables (Miscellaneous and Routine series) from the 1st of August 1904 up to date shows that there has been only one case in which exemption was sanctioned for a judicial post ^{in the Kurnool district} and that is, the exemption of G. Hanumantha Rao for employment as 7th clerk on Rs. 15 in the District Munsif's Court of Vandyal. Vide G.O. no. 71 Educational, dated 8th February 1905.

~~The question now to be considered is whether Venkoy Rao should be permanently exempted from the Examination rules for employment as 6th clerk on Rs. 15 in the District Munsif's Court of Vandyal. The District Judge of Kurnool recommends the exemption but the High Court merely forwards the application for order without any expression of opinion. For order~~
