CHARLES SMITH,

North London Collegiate

15*th October* 1901.

I have much pleasure in saying what I know of Miss Lynch's qualifications for the post of Inspector.

Miss Lynch's other testimonials and examination successes will testify to her scholarship and success in teaching. From my knowledge of Miss Lynch as a student of the Cambridge Training College I can bear witness to her knowledge of educational methods and of the principles which underlie them.

I believe Miss Lynch to be thoroughly interested in educational work and have no doubt that she would do good work as an Inspector.

MARGARET S. YOUNG, B.A.,
Assistant Mistress,
North London Collegiate School for Girls,
Late Lecturer, Cambridge Training College.

THE ABBEY HIGH SCHOOL,
MILL HILL, N.W.,
9th January 1902.

I have much pleasure in testifying to Miss Lynch's ability as a thoroughly good and efficient teacher, well acquainted with the best methods of education both theoretical and practical. Miss Lynch gave lectures here to the teachers, which were productive of good results from her clear exposition of the methods of teaching and helpful criticism of lessons.

Miss Lynch was also in charge of the classes in our Boarding School, where she proved herself a good disciplinarian and was very successful in preparing pupils for the local examinations.

I consider that Miss Lynch's qualifications are well adapted to the position of Inspector of Schools, and I have no doubt that with her strong power of organization and criticism she will be able to do very effective work in this capacity.

MARY HAZELWOOD PORTER,
Principal.

HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS,
DENBIGH ROAD, BAYSWATER,
LONDON, W., 3rd March 1902.

I have much pleasure in stating that during the twelve months Miss Lynch spent with us she gave most satisfactory proof of her ability as a teacher, being specially gifted in school discipline and organisation. Zealous and conscientious in the discharge of her duties, Miss Lynch possesses, moreover, the secret of inspiring children and students with her own earnestness and spirit of thoroughness in work, while her influence over both is excellent.

Miss Lynch's lectures to our teachers and her criticisms of their lessons were most interesting and helpful.

She was appointed the first Headmistress of our High School, but owing to family arrangements that required her presence at home, Miss Lynch was obliged to resign that position much to my regret.

EDITH HODGE,
Lady Superintendent.

EDUCATION OFFICE,
VALLETTA, 13th March 1903.

I do hereby certify that Miss C. M. Lynch, B.A., Dublin, has been engaged as teacher in the Government Young Ladies' Secondary School, Malta, since April 1902.

During her tenure of office Miss Lynch has given entire satisfaction by performing her duties with much zeal and ability. She is a good disciplinarian and her high attainments fit her for a much higher position to that which she now holds.

It would afford me much gratification to learn that Miss Lynch succeeded in obtaining an appointment suitable to her talents; such an occurrence would, however, I regret to state, cause a great loss to the Young Ladies' Secondary School.

Director of Education.

She was trained at the Cambridge Training College and she appears to have been a teacher since 1896.

2. It is rather too long and costly. Would it be better to send a despatch and ask for telegraphic reply and meanwhile ask the Secretary of State by telegraph to postpone taking action on our despatch of January last until he hears further. Miss Carr retires only on 25th May. If this course is preferred the telegram may run as follows:—

"From Governor of Madras, to Secretary of State (Vacivior), our Educational despatch dated (Mentioni), 19th January last (Cicina) regarding Inspectress Schools. Please postpone taking action (Dismotum) until you hear further (Pagellis)."

P. T. THARYAN—19-2-05.

I don't know that there is any necessity for a long telegram. Miss Lynch has already sent in her application to the Secretary of State and has no doubt stated her qualifications fully. Please put up cablegram as revised by me. Despatch can follow.
