To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that, under the following circumstances, you will be so good as to obtain the order of Government temporarily exempting J. C.

Adikesavulu Pillay, B.A. sub-protem Interpreter of this Court from passing the Precis-writing Test for a period of two years, or for such other period as the Government may think fit.

In March 1903, he was appointed an Interpreter of this Court, and the order of Government was obtained [E. 177R 4-4-03] exempting him from passing the Precis-writing Test until the results of the examination held in 1904 were announced. He appeared for the examination in 1903, which having been cancelled, he was prevented from availing himself of one of the opportunities given him; and he failed to pass in the examination held last year.

J. C. Adikesavulu Pillay is a graduate (B.A.) of the Madras University, and has also passed the First Examination in Law. He has worked as an Interpreter in the Fourth (Registrar's) Court since November 1902, and the Registrar informs me that that he has discharged his duties as Interpreter to his entire satisfaction, and that his interpretation is quick, accurate and to the point. He has also done Interpreter's work in my Court on more than one occasion during the absence of the permanent incumbent, and I was well satisfied with his work. The second and third Judges of this Court before whom also he did the duties of an Interpreter have certified as to the satisfactory manner in which he discharged his duties. Prior to being appointed Interpreter, he was Correspondence Clerk for over two years, and Bench Clerk for a year, having been first employed in this Court in February 1898. While Correspondence Clerk, his work came constantly under my notice and that of the Registrar, and it was performed efficiently and well: in fact I have always found him a most useful clerk all round.

In these circumstances, therefore, I recommend his case for the favourable consideration of Government and request that the Government may be pleased to temporarily exempt him from passing the Precis-writing Test for a period of two years, or for such other period as the Government may deem fit, so as to permit him to continue to hold the substantive appointment of an Interpreter of this Court, which carries a salary of over Rupees sixty a month.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Chief Judge.

Don

MADRAS, 26/2 1905.

My dear Taylor.

I have written in for an exemption from Praxis Test for an Adhikarni & also a clerk of this Court. I hope you will be able to manage it. He is one of the very best clerks we have & in addition to his own work as Interpreter looks after the correspondence etc. I can understand why he got plunged except that he has no practically doing things -

Yours sincerely,

C. J. P. C. C.

Exemption from the Examination Rules.

M

In G.O. R. No. 177 dtd of 4th April 1903, I.e. Adikesavalu Pillai was exempted from the precise-writing test until the results of the examination in October 1904 were announced. He is reported to have appeared for the examination in 1903 + 1904. As the examination in 1903, was in effect, not held, the exemption should on the strength of para. 2. of G.O. No. 425 dtd of 11th July 1904, hold good for another year. This is not however explicitly stated in the order & the Chief Judge applies for exemption on behalf of Adikesavalu Pillai for two years including the current year or such other period as the Govt. may deem fit.

Orders are solicited.
