C. No. From the No. , dated 190

SUBJECT.

Remuneration to Educational officers for conducting Primary Examination

Please see the Secretary's orders at Z on page 7 of G.O. No 465 Vol I of 23rd September 1904.

2. In G.O. No 692 Vol I of 23rd November 1904, (which was put up in original with the file about the re-organization of ^{Schools} Training, which has therefore been printed only just now) the Director was authorized to make his nominations to all the new posts of Sub Assistant Inspector of Schools or at his discretion to so many of them as he thought advisable. It is understood that the Director has appointed about 30 of them - out of the 62. The ^{full number of the} additional staff has not therefore been ~~used~~ employed as yet.

3. Nor has the Director submitted his proposals for the abolition of the existing Primary Examination and the substitution in its stead of the examination in situ. Proposals regarding this have again been urgently called for - G.O. No 44 Vol I of 30th January 1905.

4. Submitted therefore that the consideration of the question of abolishing the system of remuneration to Educational officers for conducting Primary Examination should lie over till the above proposals are received. The full number of Sub Assistants will also be employed by that

As the Director has not about the subordinate inspecting Agency has been entertained up to date to expedite to forward ask the revision of the Primary Exam. I do not see why the present system should necessarily continue with an increased staff until the nature of the examination is changed
