To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

Referring to G.O. No. 542 Educational d/

I
2nd September 1904 I have the honour to report that M.R. Ry Kesava pai held the rank of Temporary Assistant Surgeon from 29th February 1904 to 4th August 1904 and that on 5th August 1904 he was transferred to the Medical Department. The Surgeon-General having decided that M.R. Ry Kesava pai is not eligible for the teaching allowance - please see copy of his letter No. 6865 dated 13th December 1904 enclosed - the personal allowance of Rs 25/ per mensem sanctioned for him in the G.O. under reference may be continued for the whole of the period during which he held the rank of Temporary Assistant Surgeon. The amount, viz, Rs 790/ required for this purpose and for the teaching allowance at Rs 30/ per mensem for the 2nd and 3rd instructors is included in the re-appropriation statement submitted with my letter Cur No. 1828 of 05 dated 7th March 1905 through the Accountant-General.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. S. Ramachandran
For Director of Public Instruction,

J.S.
6-3-05

Copy of a letter from the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras No. 6865 dated 13th December 1904.

"In reply to your Reference on Cur No. 3092 dated the 2nd December 1904 I have the honour to inform you that M.R. Ry Kesava pai has only recently been confirmed as Assistant Surgeon and is therefore not entitled to the teaching allowance of Rs 30/ per mensem from 1st April last to the date of his relief at the Vizagapatam Medical School."

once told that his proposal is inadmissible. In our G.O. of 12th September 1904 plainly says that from 1st April 1904 Kesava Pai and the other instructors "are entitled to their grade pay and any charge or teaching allowance for which they are eligible according to their rank in the Medical Department." The Surgeon-General has decided that Kesava Pai is not entitled to any charge or teaching allowance according to his rank in the Medical Department. This is the 1st of August 1904 and his decision should be submitted, be agreed. The pay of the appointment was originally only Rs 75-00 as per 573 and 574 page 5 and Kesava Pai would not be entitled to any charge or teaching allowance. The 1st of August 1904 and his decision should be submitted, be agreed. The pay of the appointment was originally only Rs 75-00 as per 573 and 574 page 5 and Kesava Pai would not be entitled to any charge or teaching allowance.

Sec 4

L Kesava Pai got Rs 45 + 25 specially sanctioned in G.O. 542 d. 2.9.04 from Feb 29 to March 31. The general scheme of reorganisation came into force on April 1 and from that date Kesava Pai got Rs 100 pukka. There seems to be no particular reason to give him an extra 25 from April 1.
Hy 13.3.05

Submitted that the Director may be at the discretion of the Secy. Genl. must be upheld. There is no reason for making Kesava Pai a present of an allowance which he is in no way entitled to.
