To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honour to solicit the permanent exemption of M. R. Ry. V. Raghavayya, Manager of the District Police Office, Nellore, from passing the Account Test Higher.

2. This officer was exempted from passing the examination until the results of the examination held in October 1904 were published. He is now declared to have failed in the examination. In G.O., R.No.251, Educational, dated 21st May 1904, it was ordered that he should be warned that no further extension would be granted in his case.

3. This man was entertained in the service on 5th March 1890 as a 2nd grade head constable for employment as a clerk. His educational qualifications were Middle School (1st class), Criminal Test (Lower), Precis Test, Departmental Test and the Translation Test (Lower). On 26th August 1895 he was promoted to 4th class Inspector and employed as clerk to the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Central Range, and on 2nd January 1899, he was made Head-quarter Inspector, of Anantapur district. He was in this position when the separation of the office establishments of the Superintendents of Police from the executive force was ordered by G.O., No.245, Judicial, dated 14th February 1900.

In his letter No.2011, dated 1st June 1900, Mr. H.A.Stuart, then Inspector-General of Police, made the following observations upon this man:-

"The case of V. Raghavayya, Head-quarter Inspector of Police, Anantapur, requires special mention. He has passed the Middle School examination in the 1st class, the Criminal test, Lower Grade, the Police Departmental test and the Translation Lower test. He has been solely employed on clerical duties during the nine years of his service. He is unfit for the work of a divisional Inspector, but is a fairly capable office man for employment in a Telugu district. I request that he may be exempted from passing the Upper Secondary examination and temporarily from the Precis-writing test until the results of the examinations to be held in October 1901 are known. As regards the Account Test, Higher Grade, his name is shown in List A."

Upon this, Government, in G.O., No.250, Educational, dated 19th June 1900 observed that exemption from the Upper Secondary was unnecessary and temporarily exempted him from the Precis writing test. This test he passed in the examination held in October 1900. In his letter already quoted Mr. Stuart included this man as one of those who being "fairly young men" should pass the Account Test Higher.

4. V. Raghavayya was then 33. He is now 38. He has failed up to date to pass the test and it is not to be expected that he will ever succeed in doing so. When I inspected his office in June 1903 I noted that he appeared to be efficient. He has been well reported upon.

Application for exemption from the Account's test (Higher grade) of an unpassed candidate for employment in the Police Department.

Name, age and educational qualifications of the unpassed candidate for whose employment sanction is sought.	V. Raghavayya, Age 38 years. Has passed the Middle School examination in the first class, Criminal test - Lower grade, Precis test, Departmental test and the Translation test - Lower.
The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub. protem . or temporary.	Manager, District Police Office, Nellore.
The period for which the appointment is expected to last.	Permanent.
The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination).	Permanent.
Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? In the latter case quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has been already exempted.	This is in continuation of the sanction accorded in G.O., R.No.251, Educational, dated 21st May 1904.
What steps have been taken to procure the services of passed candidate and with what result.	Vide the accompanying letter No. 1088 dated 13 th March 1905.
Recommendation of the head of the department.
REMARKS.

OFFICE OF THE INSPR.-GENL. OF POLICE,

MADRAS,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

for Insp.-Genl. of Police.

In the circumstances, as he has shown himself competent to carry on his duties without having passed the examination, I am applying for his permanent exemption from the Account Test Higher.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
