K.R. 21-3

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Gunturi Nageswara Sastri, 9th clerk (Fair Copyist) on Rs 15/- of the Nuzvid Taluk office may be exempted from Article 2 of the Public Service notification and declared eligible for appointment to posts carrying a pay of Rs 15 per mensem and upwards and classed as 'superior' in the Civil Service Regulations in the Revenue Department in this District.

2. He has not passed any examinations qualifying for superior service, but his knowledge of English is better than that of many matriculates and he is a most intelligent and capable taluk clerk. He writes a good hand both in English (I enclose a specimen) and Telugu and has been doing important work principally in the Nuzvid Taluk office for nine years. He was confirmed in July 1899 as a permanent clerk on Rs 15 in Nuzvid Taluk office under Article 3(vii) of the Public Service notification having previously held the marginally-noted acting appointments.

11-3-1896 to } Tree tax clerk, 14-7-1896 } Nuzvid taluk.
1-8-1896 to } 4th clerk, Bezvada 2-11-1896 } Taluk.
26-11-1896 to } Fair copying clerk, 1-4-1897 } Collector's office.
7-5-1897 to } Clerk, Nuzvid Taluk.
1-7-1899 }

Having given up - his studies long ago and been burdened with responsible branches of work in heavily -

worked offices he has had no time to attempt to pass either the Matriculation or Upper Secondary Examination. Tahsildars and Divisional Officers under whom G. Nageswara Sastri has served have all formed high opinions of his abilities and have recommended the exemption now asked for. Indeed it would be nearly impossible to work the Nuzvid Taluk office without him. He is now 28 years of age. It is necessary in the interests of Government service that he should be declared eligible for the promotion which I now propose. We cannot get passed ~~a~~ men to man Taluk offices nor even my office and it is only by giving the important and heavy work of their offices to men like Nageswara Sastri that Tahsildars are able to muddle on with their work at all. They cannot get passed clerks and they will soon not be able to get competent unpassed clerks. Meanwhile Government can postpone the evil day when salaries will have to be revised by granting my present request and so attracting to Taluk offices men of Nageswara Sastri's stamp.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Amesh Chandra
For Collector. (1/3)

Promotion to Government servants. Service to be taken into consideration. Subject to considerations of honesty and efficiency, men who have devoted their past lives to the Public service have a moral claim to advancement to higher appointments. Such claims should always receive full consideration, but no official should, simply on the ground of seniority in service, be promoted to a post the duties of which he is not competent to discharge. Like-wise under no circumstances should an arrangement be made under which the higher-paid officials do the less important work of an office, while the more important duties devolve on officials in receipt of lower pay.

Vacancies in Nazim and Divisional offices.
Vacancies in Head Quarters and Divisional offices should as a rule, be filled by the selection of Taluk clerks of approved conduct and efficiency. This will very materially increase the working power of Controlling offices, because of the practical experience which such clerks will bring to the discharge of their duties. Moreover, forced men will not be slow to take up appointments in Taluks, if sufficient inducement in the shape of prospect of a regular flow of promotion is offered to Then one of the great causes of the inefficiency of these establishments is that errors in the Taluk ordinarily lead to much better.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 522 From the Collector of Kistna No. 83, dated 14.3.1905.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination Rules

p. 2 of the Current file.

The Collector of Kistna recommends the permanent exemption from the upper secondary or the Matriculation Examination of G. Nageswarasastri, a copyist on Rs 15 in the Nuzvid taluq office, to enable him to be promoted to posts of Clerkship on Rs 15 and upward.

The chief grounds for the concession is that he has done good work & that no passed men are available.

Orders are solicited as to whether the exemption may be granted.
