I do not consider that this is a case in which the exception applied for should be given.

There can be no difficulty in allowing in Lower Officers qualified for the post of Head Clerk in the ordinary course, and the exception herein is, which is asked for, purely a personal point seems undesirable

The order requiring the Head Clerk to have passed the Criminal Higher Test ^{was} issued in 1904 - Please see ~~para 10~~ 10. 648 EDC 828-10-04

Cl.

The applicant wants permission to appear for the Criminal Test (higher) although he has not passed the First Examination in Arts. Considering how recently the order was passed prescribing the Test for the head clerkship (9.0. 648 EDC 28.10.04) & that the I.C. strongly recommends the application, I think the application may be supported in Inst. The applicant cannot be expected to pass the First Exam in Arts and the promotion to which he had no doubt looked forward & in which he appears to be fit in the opinion of the I.C. is barred to him by a new rule.
