Edl CURRENT No. 605

(Separate Revenue.)

The Hon'ble Mr. H. BRADLEY,

1st Member, Board of Revenue, &

READ Commissioner of Salt, Abkari & Separate Revenue.

Read endorsement of Bryce McMaster, Esquire, Deputy Commissioner, Northern Division, R.C.No.515, dated 4th March 1905 on memorial from Luthfur Rahman, Subprotem Sub-Inspector, Ganjam Circle.

Reference:-

Submitted for the orders of Government. The Board has no recommendation to make in his favour.

2. The petitioner's career in this Department has not been satisfactory. After about two years service he took casual leave and failed to rejoin his appointment at the end of his leave. His services were dispensed with, but the Deputy Commissioner, Northern Division, has very recently given him a further chance. The Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, under whom he served formerly has a very poor opinion of him.

Respectively

The most humble Memorial of Lutfun-
Rahman, Great-grand-Son of His late Highness Azeemud-dowlah Bhdr, first British Nawab of Carnatic & Grand Son-in-law of His late Highness Nawab Zaheerud-dowlah Bhdr G.C.S.I. 2nd Prince of Arcot:

Most respectfully Sheweth,

1. That your Excellency's humble memo-
-list

begs to lay his deplorable Case before your Excellency in Council for kind and Compassionate Consideration as your Excellency have been so preeminently Conspicious amongst the members of the respectable family of the Carnatic for the deep interest your Excellency evince in them and as the memorialist from the genealogy sketched out above will be seen a direct descendant of the Carnatic family & as such the memorialist earnestly hopes that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to Comply with his prayer Contained therein.

2. That the memorialist having lost his father, (late Mohomed Hussain Sahib quraishi) in his prime season of youth was deprived of getting higher educations for want of proper means though, yet the memorialist mother Quader-un-nissa Begum Saheba having seen no other way to give him education, at once made a bonus of her pension vide Copy of the receipt Exhibit I is herein enclosed for your Excellencys kind perusal. The memorialist mother after receiving the amount began to afford him help to his advanced studies up to the matriculation standard & subsequently she was compelled to cease affording help to the entire prejudice of his advanced studies owing to the want of pecuniary resources. the memorialist though did not pass his any one of the University Examinations, yet he is well qualified in English, Persian, Urdu, Tamil & Telegu & Could Speak Canarese well and by which Capacity he is able to manage a higher appointment in the Government Services.

3. That the memorialist during the time of His Excellency Sir Aurthur Elebank Hamlock G.C.M.G.C.B. G.C. was granted an Exemption from passing the Upper Secondary examination restricted to Salt & abkari dept., upon the representation & recommendation of the Paymaster Carnatic stipends, Madras. (viz Lieut Colonel R. F. R. Formby vide Copy of G.O. Exhibit II enclosed herein for your Excellencys kind perusal.

4. That the memorialist when enquired with the Secretary to the Commissioner Government Examinations as to his eligibility for Candidature to the Preliminary writing test examination, the officer in reply Communicated to him an order that his present Exemption does not allow him to apply for any one of the special test Examinations. The said order is not enclosed herein as it is missing.

That it is not out of place to submit

that his late father while was a Head-master at adoni applied for a Dy. Collectorship (Exhibit III) which was about to be given to him, but unfortunately his Sudden death intervened. And the memorialists late father had passed 8 Examinations, a Kind perusal to his late father's petition (enclosed Exhibit III) will prove the fact.

5. That the memorialist after having been exempted applied for an attachiship in the Residency Berar, but unfortunately there also he was disappointed, the reply received from the Resident Hydsabad (Exhibit IV) is herein enclosed for your Excellency's Kind perusal.

6. That the memorialist was an Af. Clerk in the Board of Revenue (Seperate Revenue) and during his services rendered there gave satisfaction to his Superior officers. orders of appointments (Exhibits III & VIII) are herein enclosed. After Some period the memorialist again put in a petition to the Deputy Commissioner of Salt, abkari & Customs dept. Northern Division, through the Board for a Sub. Inspectors place & the said Officer has appointed him as a Sub. Inspector on Rs 30/- & posted him to Ganjam Circle vide appointment order (Exhibit VIII) herein enclosed.

7. That it is not out of place to submit that during the life time of the memorialist Great-grand-father Sucessive Governors of Madras used to be the guests at his residence and now his descendant is reduced to poverty. However the memorialist is thankful to the Government as he is now under the support of the gracious Government, though his pay is only Rs30/-

8. That the memorialist begs to add that his present exemption having been restricted to Salt & abkari dept., he is destined to enjoy only a very little sphere of Service & promotion as his present exemption never allows him to apply for precis writing, Criminal & Revenue tests &c. respectively.

9. That the memorialist's mother who was entitled to a house rent of Rs 7/- monthly, that was also not reconsidered by the Government for sanction. vide time Copy of the Proceedings of Madras Government (Exhibit II) herein enclosed.

That the memorialist further begs to Submit that the support of his poor respectable & necessitious family entirely depends upon his well-being & fortune.

10 Under the foregoing Circumstances the memorialist humbly prays your Excellency in Council that the gracious Government will be graciously pleased to accord a linient Consideration to the subject-matter of his humble memorial & will thus grant him a general exemption of Upper-Secondary examination with the permissions to apply for all the special tests examination as the memorialist is very anxious to pass atleast his special tests examination by working hard for Sometime.

For which act of mercy & charity the memorialist will ever pray that the Summer of your Excellency's ever-increasing Prosperity may shine brighter & brighter for ever.

The original enclosures enclosed to his humble memorial are for your Excellency's kind perusal & return at earliest convenience.

Soliciting for favour of Orders
