GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From D. D. MURDOCH, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 11th March 1905, No. 1739-G.

In its order No. 423, dated the 11th July 1896, Government exempted Ahmad 'Ali Makkari from the Examination rules for entertainment in the public service. He was first appointed as a fifth-grade Sub-Inspector in the Salt, Abkari and Customs department. When a vacancy occurred in December 1901 in the Customs preventive service, he was appointed a preventive officer on Rs. 50—5—75; and to enable him to hold the appointment, Government, in its order No. 108, Educational, dated the 27th February 1902, exempted him from the Translation test, Lower grade. The appointment being a graded one, he is required to pass the Précis-writing test to enable him to draw Rs. 60 and upwards. He states that he has appeared for the test five times, but he has hitherto failed to secure a pass. In consequence, he has not been able to draw more than Rs. 55 though his second increment was due on the 1st January 1904.

2. There appears to be no likelihood of his passing the examination in the near future and, as the appointment he is holding is purely executive and requires no knowledge of Précis-writing, I have the honour to recommend that he be exempted from the Précis-writing test to enable him to draw the increments of his grade.

3. In this connection I would solicit a reference to Mr. Austin's letter No. 780, dated the 11th April 1894, disposed of in G.O., No. 632, Revenue, dated the 31st August 1894, and to the view expressed by the Board of Revenue in the matter of appointments to the preventive service of this department.

4. A statement in the prescribed form is submitted.

ENCLOSURE.

APPLICATION for exemption from Examination rules of persons employed in the office of the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras.

Name, age and educational qualifications.	The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment, whether acting, sub. pro tem. or temporary. NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 251, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
18TH APRIL 1905.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption from the Précis-writing Test.]

From the Collector of Sea-Customs, No. 1739-G., dated 11th March 1905.

Ahmad'Ali Makkari is a preventive officer on Rs. 50—5—75 in the Madras Sea Customs office. The Collector of Sea Customs states that the man is required to pass the Précis-writing test to draw his second increment, i.e., Rs. 60 per mensem, and requests that he may be exempted from the test so that he may be able to draw the increments. But under the Public Service notification, appointments carrying incremental pay are to be treated as appointments carrying a fixed pay equal to the average pay calculated in accordance with article 150 of the Civil Service Regulations. He should therefore have been exempted from the test at least temporarily before he was appointed to the post. This point was not raised when he was exempted from the Translation test, lower grade, in G.O., No. 108, Educational, dated 27th February 1902. But the Board of Revenue is inclined to think that these preventive officers need not pass the Précis-writing test. Please see the linked file (G.O., No. 256, Educational, dated 19th April 1905).

Orders are solicited as to whether the exemption may be granted.

K.K.M.—27-3-05.

Submitted that orders on this file may wait for the disposal of the linked file (G.O., No. 256, Educational, dated 19th April 1905).

P. T. THARYAN—27-3-05.

The appointment of preventive officer in the Sea Customs department does not fall within the category of appointments for which the Précis-writing test is prescribed under article 5 of the Public Service notification.
