To

The Secretary to Government,

~~Local and Municipal~~ Department.

(Through the Board, Land Revenue.)

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to exempt C. V. Govinda Menon, Special Revenue Inspector, now working under the Special Assistant Settlement Officer, from passing the Revenue and Account Tests, with a view to his appointment as Head Clerk, Cochin Deputy Collector's office.

2. At a recent inspection I found the office of the Deputy Collector was in a state of very great confusion. A special report with the Deputy Collector's explanation for the defects discovered will shortly be submitted to the Board. The present Head Clerk is about to retire and in seeking for a suitable successor I find no one in the District so well qualified for the post as my present nominee. Govinda Menon's tenure in the Settlement Department will expire by the end of this month. Mr. Innes speaks extremely highly of him as the following remarks of his will show: "He has worked directly under me for the last 4 years and whenever I had a piece of work demanding more than ordinary care and accuracy I usually selected the applicant for it." In addition to his general qualifications Govinda Menon has the advantage of having an intimate knowledge of Cochin. He was escheat head clerk there between 1884-1887 and has recently been employed in the Settlement enquiries. On every ground therefore I consider it would be a distinct advantage if he can be appointed to the vacant post. His age is now 46 years, and he has 21 years service. His present pay is Rs. 50 (the same as that of the Cochin appointment).

3. Govinda

3. Govinda Menon was, under the orders conveyed in B.P. No. 3721 Mis., dated 27th July 1899 exempted from passing Revenue Test with a view to his appointment as Revenue Inspector. He has since then gained several years experience in field work as a Special Inspector. The considerations which led to his being considered qualified for a Revenue Inspector's post without having passed Revenue Test apply, I submit, with equal force to his proposed appointment as Head Clerk of the Cochin Deputy Collector's office. I would therefore strongly urge that my proposed appointment may be approved.

4. I would add that though there are numerous other clerks eligible for the post in question, I find none of suitable standing whom I consider fit to restore the Deputy Collector's office to order, and to deal with the intricate correspondence which will probably accompany the introduction of the new settlement into Cochin.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L. G. Moore

For Ag. Collector.

C. No. 607 From the Collector of Malabar No. 295, dated 25.3.1905.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from certain Special Tests.

p. 2 of the Circular file

The Collector of Malabar applies for the permanent exemption of C. V. Govinda Menon, Special Revenue Inspector, working under the Special Assst Settlement Officer, from the Account & Revenue tests, lower grade, in order ^{that he may be} appointed ~~him~~ as the head clerk in the Cochin Dy Collector's office.

2. The grounds for the exemption are stated in para. 2 of the Collector's letter.

For orders as to whether the exemption may be granted.

RKLH He seems to be too old to pass the tests. Revenue may perhaps be consulted.

Rev. would not object. It seems quite a suitable case for exemption.
