C. No. 645 From the Collector of Ganjam No. 195 R dated 27.3.1905

SUBJECT.

Exemption of Typewriting Clerk
from the upper Secondary Examination

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in 1900 a type-writing Machine ^{was} supplied to this office. Since then repeated attempts have been made to secure a qualified typist by issuing notices in the Port St. George Gazette and otherwise, but they have been unsuccessful. Under the rules, the qualifications required for a typewriter in a Collector's Office are higher than those required for a typewriter in other Government Offices, since the former is required to pass both the General Educational Test and the special Typewriting Examination. The services of candidates who have passed only the typewriting examination can be secured, but not those who have in addition passed also the Matriculation or the Upper Secondary Examination.

2. M. Venugopal Rao Naidu has been working as a Typist in this Office for the last four years. He passed the Elementary Type-writing Examination. He is a very willing worker. He types --- rapidly without committing mistakes and his work has been exceedingly satisfactory. He is now a clerk on Rs. 20 in the Court of Wards' Branch. I recommend that he may be permanently exempted from the Upper Secondary Examination for employment as a type-writing Clerk in this Office.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. O. A. Croft

for Collector.

These notes to Article 4 (13), Copyists & Typewriting Clerks in Collector's offices, should pass the upper Secondary or the Matriculation Examination in addition to the typewriting test - elementary or intermediate.

The Collector of Ganjam says that no qualified candidate is available for the post of Typewriting Clerk in his office in spite of the efforts taken to secure one. He recommends that one Venugopal Rao Naidu who has been working as a typist & who has passed the typewriting test - elementary grade, may be permanently exempted from the upper Secondary Examination in order that he may be appointed as a typewriting Clerk of his office.

Submitted for order as to whether the exemption may be sanctioned.
