Sir,

C. No. 610 From the Inspector Genl of Police No. 1327, dated 28.3.1905.

SUBJECT.

Permission to appear for certain Special Tests

The Inspector-General recommends that Subbarao, 1st Grade head Constable, may be permitted to appear for the Criminal test, lower grade & the précis-writing test. The applicant being only a middle-school man, cannot appear for these examinations - Article 4 & Note 2 to that article.

For notes as to whether the permission applied for may be given.

For u.o. for remarks. It is not known whether the proposals of the Police Commission will affect the question of qualification of Inspector in future, and it is not desirable to remove the Special Test Examinations at the limited number of centres at which they are now held with by admitting unqualified candidates. In the absence of any very strong special recommendation the permission may be refused.

Attention is invited to paras 58 & 61 + para. 200 (48) to (51). Inspectors will ordinarily be promoted Sub-Inspectors; Sub-Inspectors will be appointed direct save in exceptional cases, promotions of head constables being strictly limited. The Commissioner lays stress on the necessity that Sub-Inspector should be well educated. Subba Rao is a head constable who has passed the middle school examination & is now acting as Inspector. There does not seem to be sufficient reason for allowing him to appear for the special tests.

Mr. Rao's name is in the linked file - I submit exemption in he refuses in the case. The man may do as a Sub-Inspector, but certainly not as an Inspector under the new rules - What the qualification as far as Education goes for the Sub-Inspector will he will do with knowledge
