To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to exempt Gunta Govindappa, acting Minor Irrigation Lascar, Bellary Range, from passing the primary examination with a view to his confirmation from 19th June 1899 the date on which he was first appointed to the post. The vacancy is a permanent one and the man has been rendering useful service and has also acquired some technical experience. It is proposed to give him the benefit of his past service but this cannot be done without the sanction of Government on account of the examination rules which were relaxed only recently.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

FURTHER PAPERS.

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

In reply to Government Memorandum No. 194, dated 31st March 1905, I have the honour to report that the Minor Irrigation Sub Overseer, Bellary Range, failed to apply for the necessary sanction to the temporary exemption of his lascar from the examination rules as he was under the erroneous impression that such sanction was required only for permanent appointment. The lascar, however, should not be made to suffer on that account and I request that the omission may be condoned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. No. 486 From the Collector of Bellary No. 322, dated 13.3.1905.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination Rules.

The Collector of Bellary requests that one Ganta Govindappa, acting Minor Irrigation Lascar, may be exempted from the primary examination with effect from the 19th of June 1899, the date on which he was first appointed to ^{the post} ~~act~~. In the revised Public Service notification, the post of Lascar has been excluded from the operation of Article 1. of the notification. The exemption is therefore required only up to the 3rd January 1905 when the revised notification was published.

~~A draft is placed below for approval.~~

~~Orders are solicited.~~

Sanction with retrospective effect cannot be given. If this is done it will be treated as a precedent. But will be delayed until application for recognition of past service. It must be carefully guarded against. He can only be exempted from the date of the P.S. notification.
but ~~the~~ - final sanction will be an accolade
to his exemption for the period of his active service.

The draft placed below is submitted for approval.

2. With reference to the last two sentences of the draft, is it not for Revenue to say whether the man should be confirmed or not? That department may therefore be asked whether there is any objection to the retention of those sentences in the draft.
