The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to permit Mr. Bilderbeck, who has been granted furlough in continuation of the ensuing summer vacation of the Presidency College, to hand over charge of the Principalship of the College to Mr. E.W. Middlemast on the last working day in the current session as his successor is not likely to join the College until after the vacation. As there will be very little office work to do during the College vacation the above arrangement will not interfere with the duties of Mr. Middlemast as Deputy Director.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

J.P. Scott

For Director of Public Instruction.
