Commissioner of Salt, Abkari & Separate Revenue.

Reference:-

The Board requests that Government will be pleased to exempt Messrs. Robert Henry Greene and Sidney Charlton Browne from the Examination rules with a view to their retention in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department. Both of them are Europeans by birth - The former has passed VIIIth Standard Examination according to the English Educational Code at Newport in Monmouthshire and two examinations in the Army and was awarded the 1st and 2nd British Army School certificates. The latter passed the Vth Form School Examination at the Beacon School, Berhill-on-Sea, Sussex, in 1902. The Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, appointed them as Sub-Inspectors in August 1903 and July 1904, respectively, under a misapprehension that they required no exemption from the Examination rules. They are well reported on and Mr. Greene has been promoted to act as Assistant Inspector and Mr. Browne's work has been consistently good and he is likely to turn out a good officer.

2. An application in the prescribed form is enclosed.
