To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the permanent appointment of lower secondary men to the posts on Rs 15 per mensem in the offices of the Assistant and Sub Assistant Inspectors of Schools in the Northern and Central circles. For years past most of these posts have been filled by unqualified men except for short intervals when Matriculates with Handwriting Test accepted the appointments and left shortly afterwards either because they found that they had no prospect of promotion or because they were able to secure appointments in other departments. Lower Secondary men have thus had to be retained under the sanction of the Director or of Government -as the case may be- for their exemption from the examination rules and the rule requiring that these posts should be filled by Matriculates with Handwriting Test has been practically inoperative. This is very unsatisfactory and interferes seriously with the work of the whole Department either indirectly or even directly. Even the best unpassed men will not take up these appointments when their tenure is so precarious. The action which has I presume been taken under G.O. R. Nos 10 and 11 of 6th January 1905 whereby men conversant with the work of the office may have had to give place to clerks not only technically but actually unqualified for the work is very detrimental to that work. The appointment of Matriculates for short intervals has also interfered with the office work, as each time that a change occurs the new man has to be taught his work. The Inspecting officers appear to have all along done their best to secure the services of Matriculates, but their efforts have been of no avail. Fully qualified men are not so easily procurable in the Northern Circars and the Ceded Districts as in the other parts of the Presidency, as the annual outturn of Matriculates in these districts is small, while owing to the general unhealthiness of some stations and latterly the prevalence of plague in others qualified men are not attracted to them from other parts of the Presidency. The vacancies in the offices of the new Sub Assistants' ranges have also been advertized, but it is reported that no application has yet been received from qualified men for any of the appointments in the Central Circle. I have already received a number of applications for exemption of lower secondary men for appointment to the Rs 15 posts in these two Circles. A statement showing the periods during which most of the posts have been held by unqualified men and certain other particulars in connection therewith is submitted for the information of Government.

The favour of early orders is solicited.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Sathianadhan,
For Director of Public Instruction.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 662 From the D.P.I. No. 800, dated 4-4-1905.

SUBJECT: Exemption from examination rules.

The Director represents that it is difficult to get passed candidates for appointment to posts on Rs 15 a month in the offices of the Asstt. and Sub-Asstt. Inspectors of schools in the Northern and central circles and requests general sanction to appoint men who have passed the Lower Secondary examination to those posts.

2. No precedents can be traced for a concession of this nature.

3. Submitted that the Director may be told to apply for ~~individual~~ exemption from examination rules in particular cases when he is satisfied that passed candidates are not available.

2. The ~~Pres~~ central circle includes the Presidency Division comprising Nellore, Madras, & Chingleput. In Madras & Chingleput at least there should be no dearth of passed candidates.

3. A Sub-Asstt's office has only one clerk on Rs 15. but an Asstt. Inspector's office has three clerks on Rs 30, Rs 20 & Rs 15. vide pages 113 & 114 of the list of Officers in the Educational Department.

For orders

I am strongly opposed to whole-sale exemptions especially in the Educational Dept. - but there may be some difficulty in obtaining help'd men in the N. Circars & Cere Districts for the newly appointed Sub-Com Inspector. Temporary exemption may be granted in the case of Sub-Asst clerks till 31st March 06?

I see small good in fighting against the impossible. The work has to be done somehow & by imperfect men if passed are not available. When prisoners are found they only pass away as quickly as they caught employment elsewhere. So no good is done to the Educ. Dept. however it is looked at.

Let the Director appoint as he proposes, but report each individual case; and address us further at the end of a year time
