The Director of Public Instruction Madras.

Sir, As I find that under Article 233 of the Civil Service Regulations, that I am entitled to combined leave, I have the honor to request - you to be good as to recommend that I should be 8 days, plus six months sick leave granted, may be converted into privilege leave, which is due to me.

I have the honor to be Sir

Yours most obedient servant the Board of Civil Service Commissioners was eligible on 23 February 1905, (the date on which she availed herself of 6 months leave on medical certificate) for 1 month and 8 day privilege leave, there is no objection to this period being now retrospectively commuted into privilege leave under art. 232 & 233 of the C.S.R., and the remaining period being treated as leave on medical certificate under art. 336 of the Civil Service Regulations.

For the purpose of the Civil Service Regulations the period of 6 months leave on medical certificate is to be treated as 6 months privilege leave.
