FURTHER PAPERS.

To
The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

In reply to endorsement No. 234 dated 20th April 1905 returned herewith I have the honour to state that Mr. Lazarus has always posed for Missionary purposes as an Indian Christian, but in applying to me recently for a scholarship for his daughter he claimed to take advantage of the rules for Europeans and Eurasians. I cannot obtain any information about his son, but as the son is already studying in England a scholarship seems to be hardly necessary.

I think that in any case it would be better to select a more typical Indian.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

E. W. M. S. L. M. S. L.

For Director of public Instruction.

Mr. Lazarus is I imagine a partial Christian, but I do not know.

The answer to be given him is that the conditions governing the grant of these Scholarships require such knowledge of the candidate's qualifications as cannot be obtained except a personal knowledge of him or by post-mortem, and as his son is in England any consideration of him is impossible.
