ENCLOSURES

FROM

Ernest Llewellyn Vaughan Esq., I.C.S.,

COLLECTOR OF

Cuddapah,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE

COMMISSIONER OF

LAND REVENUE,

Madras.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that Vedavalle Chela-mayya, permanent 4th English clerk on Rs.35/- has passed the following examinations and special tests :-

1. Matriculation Examination with Handwriting test,
2. Precis-writing test,
3. Translation test, Lower grade,
- and 4. Survey test.

In addition he passed in 1893, the incomplete Revenue test i.e., Revenue test without Account test. Please see General No.2390 in the results published at page 8 of the Fort Saint George Gazette dated the 21st February 1893. As the number of marks obtained by him in passing this test, fell short of the minimum prescribed for the Revenue test in G.O. No.317, Educational, dated 9th May 1894, revising the Public Service and Special test notifications embodied in B.P. No.263, L.Rev., dated 16th June 1894, his name was omitted in the revised results of successful candidates of 1891 & 1892, published under the above quoted G.O. in the Fort Saint George Gazette dated 3rd July 1894 and hence he was considered to have failed in the Revenue Test. In October

1902, my predecessor appointed him as an Acting 1st class

Revenue Inspector on Rs.40 and the Board was pleased to sanction his temporary exemption from the Account test, Lower

Grade, in its Proceedings No.3473 Misc., dated 29th October 1902. He joined the appointment on the 29th October 1902 and has been continuing in it under the exemptions granted in

Board's Proceedings Nos.3378 Misc, dated 7th October 1903 and

2013 Misc., dated 8th June 1904. He has not passed the Rev Revenue and Account tests during these three years. He is nearly fifty and will probably never pass. He is well spoken of, - his services were sought for by the Canal Deputy Collect-tor-and it would be a hardship to revert him after acting in a higher grade for years. He is a native of this District.

If reverted he would be useless at clerical work. For reasons considered in the ^{past} ~~past~~, annual exemptions are likely to continue in the future. I recommend therefore that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for his permanent exemption from passing the Revenue Test, Lower grade, including Account Test.

I have

C. No. 833 From the Board of Rev. & A. R. No. 220, dated 2-5-1905.

SUBJECT.

Permanent exemption from the Rev. and Account tests, lower grade.

Vedavalle Chelamayya, fourth English Clerk on Rs. 35 in the Collector's Office, Cuddapah, was appointed in 1902 to act as 1st class Revenue Inspector on Rs. 40. He had not passed the Revenue and Account tests, lower grade, but the Board of Rev. temporarily exempted him from time to time. The Collector now requests that Chelamayya may be exempted from these tests permanently. He has passed the matriculation examination with the Handwriting test, the Pre's, Translation and Survey tests. He is reported to be well spoken of and the Collector considers that it will be a hardship to revert ~~the clerk~~ him to his permanent post after acting for years in a higher grade. He is nearly fifty years of age and is not likely to pass these tests at this age. Orders are solicited.

This above is only a part of the case for Chelamayya. The other part is that he passed the Revenue test without the Account Code in 1892 ~~but~~ and his name was published in the Fort St George Gazette but having failed to complete the test by passing in the Civil Account Code and having not having secured in the incomplete examination passed by him the revised minimum number of marks, his pass ^{given in the incomplete test} ~~was not reckoned as~~ was not subsequently reckoned as valid. His knowledge of the revenue subjects could not therefore have been of a high order.

2. Orders are solicited whether he should now be permanently exempted. He has little or no chance of passing the examination & the alternative seems to lie between permanent exemption & continuance as Revenue Inspector on Rs 40, and reversion to Collector's office on Rs 35. The Coll^y says he would be useful as a clerk.

 of 1892, the minimum prescribed under the revised ~~Public~~ service Special Test notification.
