Sir,

I have the honour to refer the following case for the orders of Government.

2. A. Kotiah, 3rd Assistant Master, Government Training School, Bellary, on Rs.20, and now acting First Assistant, Government Training School, Kurnool, on Rs. 20-2-30, drew increments, as noted inthe margin, in excess of what he was entitled to, under Article 155(b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

May 1902 to April 03	288	264	24
May 1903 to Septr. 03	130	120	10
Total			58

3. The Officer was appointed substantively as 3rd Assistant at Bellary, on Rs.20 only on 9th ~~Den~~February 1900. On the 23rd April 1901, he was appointed to officiate as First Assistant at Anantapur on Rs.20-2-30, and subsequently at Kurnool, on the same rate of pay. He was entitled to acting allowance calculated on the next higher stage pay of the officiating appointment only from 1st May 1902; but he was allowed to draw this salary from 1st May 1901, and the next higher stages at intervals of one year, his previous officiating service in other appointments, when he had no substantive appointment, being allowed to count for increments. This fact was not clearly shown in the bills drawn and was discovered only on receipt of the Service Register which was sent to this office in connection with this question.

4. As more than six months have elapsed since the allowances were drawn, I have the honour to refer the case for the orders of Government under Article 972(1), Civil Account Code.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that, in my letter No.T.12 Kul/7456, dated 30th September 1904, it was reported that A. Kotiah, Acting 1st Assistant, Government Training School, Kurnool, had overdrawn Rs.58, and the matter was submitted for the orders of Government. The amount reported to have been overdrawn was calculated with reference to the particulars entered in the Teacher's Service Book which was forwarded to me by the Inspector of European and Training Schools. The first entry in this book showed that Kotiah was appointed as 3rd Assistant, Government Training School, Bellary, on 9th February 1900, and there was nothing in the book to show that his first substantive appointment was earlier than that date. Nor was any mention made by the Inspector of there being any further records in connection with the appointment of this teacher.

2. The Inspector has now forwarded another service book which he states to be the first volume of Kotiah's service register. According to the entry in this book Kotiah was first appointed substantively as 3rd Assistant in the Training School, Bellary, on 1st March 1892. The entry has been verified with the books of establishment in this office and found to be correct. In the light of facts now brought to notice by by the Inspector, the amount overdrawn by Kotiah is reduced from Rs.58 to Rs.4-0-2.

3. Kotiah overdrew nothing during the year~~s~~ 1901-02, 1902-03, nor for April 1903, from May to September of that year he overdrew annas 12 and pies 10 per mensem, amounting to Rs.4-0-2, which cannot be recovered from him without the order of Government. I have the honour to refer the case to Government under Article 972(1), Civil Account Code.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

In returning the papers referred to me with endorsement No. 550 Educational, dated 6th October last, regarding the recovery of certain acting allowances overdrawn by A. Kotiah of the Government Training School, Kurnool, I have the honour to state that the Accountant-General is not correct in saying in para 3 of his letter that Kotiah's substantive appointment began only on the 9th February 1900. From the service book of this officer it is seen that he was appointed to the post of third assistant of the Bellary Training School substantively with effect from the 1st March 1892 and Kotiah was entitled to the first increment in his officiating appointment with effect from the 1st May 1901 having already officiated in other appointments of the same grade. I am informed that in the light of the above information the Accountant-General has addressed Government again on the subject.

G.O. 521

I regret the delay in replying to this reference. The Inspector of European and Training Schools to whom the Accountant-General's letter was referred found it necessary to make a reference to the 1st volume of the service register of Kotiah in order to verify certain dates which took some time, and the Inspector has also been in direct communication with the Accountant-General on the subject which has also taken time.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Satthianadhan

The Director's* reply has now been received. He says that A. Kotayya was first appointed to the post of third assistant of the Bellary Training school substantively with effect from the 1st. of March 1892, not from the *9th. Febry: 1900 as originally reported by the Accountant General, and was entitled to the 1st. increment with effect from the 1st. May 1901. The †A.G. has subsequently found this statement to be correct and says that the amount overdrawn by Kotayya is therefore only Rs. 4-"-2.
