From W. DOBBIE, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, No. P.A. 85/1387, dated 8th May 1905.

I have the honour to invite a reference to G.O., No. 1914 M., dated 10th December 1894, in which orders have been passed for the organisation of a class for the training of Sanitary Inspectors and for the grant of an allowance of Rs. 75 per annum to the Assistant Professor of Hygiene, Madras Medical College, for his work in that connection and to point out most respectfully that as the pay of the Assistant Professor has since been in G.O., No. 98, Educational, dated 4th March 1903, raised to Rs. 200—20—300 a month, the sanction of the Government of India is necessary for the continuance of the above allowance under the provisions of articles 72 (b) note and 76 (1) of the Civil Service Regulations. I request therefore that that sanction may now be obtained and communicated to me.

2. I may also, in this connection, invite the attention of the Government to their orders passed in the Educational Department noted in the margin, in which it has been held that the Assistant Professors of Physiology and Hygiene should respectively undertake to deliver a course of lectures in Physiology and demonstration in Bacteriology to the students of the Sanitary Inspectors' class free of any honorarium and would submit it for the consideration of Government whether the duties to which the remuneration under reference relates are not also of the same nature and whether any remuneration is necessary in respect of this work. I may add that the honorarium of Rs. 600 to the Professor of Hygiene sanctioned in the order of December 1894 already referred to for work connected with the same, the Sanitary Inspectors' class, is no longer paid.

ORDER—No. 368, Educational, dated 31st May 1905.

The allowance of Rs. 75 per annum sanctioned to the Assistant Professor of Hygiene and Bacteriology in G.O., No. 1914 M., dated 10th December 1894, for his work in connection with the training of Sanitary Inspectors will cease from the date on which his pay was raised from Rs. 100—10—200 to Rs. 200—20—300.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 368, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 31st MAY 1905.

[SUBJECT.—Continuance of an allowance of Rs. 75 per annum to the Assistant
Professor of Hygiene in the Madras Medical College.]

From the Accountant-General, No. P.A. 85/1387, dated 8th May 1905.

In the circumstances explained by the Accountant-General, orders are solicited as to whether the Government of India should be addressed for the continuance of the allowance of Rs. 75 per annum to the Assistant Professor of Hygiene in the Madras Medical College, sanctioned in G.O., No. 1914 M., dated 10th December 1894, for his work in connection with the training of Sanitary Inspectors. The honoraria of Rs. 600 sanctioned to the Professor of Hygiene and of Rs. 200 to the Assistant to the Professor of Physiology have been discontinued when the reorganisation of the staff of the Medical College came into force—vide G.O., No. 718, Educational, dated 21st November 1902 and G.O., No. 450, Educational, dated 17th September 1903. In these circumstances it does not appear necessary to continue the allowance to the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene.
