Sir,

To

The Sanitary Commissioner for Madras.

Honored Sir,

I beg respectfully to submit the following for your honor's favourable consideration.

Under your honor's kind patronage, I have been working in your honor's office for the last 4 years. I hold the last place in the establishment on Rs 15 per mensem.

Being an unpassed candidate I cannot hope to rise in the department without your honor's kind representation to government of my hard case. By perseverance and application to work, I have been discharging the duties entrusted to me to the satisfaction of my superiors. This fact, the manager and Assistant will, I am sure, bear testimony to.
I need not state, at length, here to convince you that my future will be miserable, unless your honor be pleased to get for me

therefore, that before your honor leaves the Department on promotion, you will be pleased to confer this ever lasting boon on me.

I beg to remain

2. The clerk was appointed temporarily to the last place in the arrangement connected with the appointment of one of the members of the office staff as plague clerk. During the four years the petitioner has been in the office he has made himself extremely useful, and is deserving of encouragement. He is however not qualified for public service. Undersigned would therefore recommend that the exemption prayed for be granted, so far as this office is concerned, as it is desirable to retain his services. The man is of respectable parentage, and his conduct had been uniformly good.

FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Local and Municipal Department.

Sir,

on page 6 of the
ch. file.

With reference to Memorandum No. 280. Educational dated 15th May 1905, I have the honour to state that incidents demanding that I should acquaint myself with the conditions necessary for the holding of Government posts on Rs. 15 have been extremely limited, throughout my service. This is a point that will be readily recognized when it is remembered ~~was~~ with how limited a staff on this pay I have had to deal during the last eleven years, irrespective of my service formerly as District Medical and Sanitary Officer. There is in my office but one post bearing this salary, and the question of an unqualified man holding it was only raised, in this single instance, four years ago. I was then informed that the rules required that an unqualified man could be given the post, provided his pay did not exceed Rs. 15. Of course, ignorance of the Regulations of Government cannot be regarded as an excuse for their breach, and therefore I offer my expressions of regret; but that Government may be certain that I acted bona fide in this matter four years ago, and have consistently held the belief since then, I would invite its attention to the accompanying extract from a Memorandum, No. 687, A, dated 18th March 1905, issued by me in reference to the appointment of one S. Ramalingam Aiyer at the King Institute. This man was, on opening of the Institute, appointed 3rd Clerk on Rs. 35. I accepted him from another public institution, and having ascertained he was a Matriculate thought he was fully qualified for

Government

Government Service. It was however brought to my notice, subsequently, that he had not passed the "hand-writing test", and therefore did not fulfil Government requirements. Upon this, I ordered the man to be reduced to the 4th clerk's place until he could prove himself fully qualified, and this act I considered justified on my old belief of four years previously that unqualified men could hold appointments on Rs. 15. I have now removed this man until he qualifies fully.

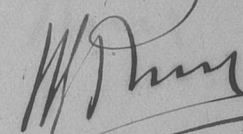

2. I trust that the erroneous act on my part will not be permitted to militate against the recommendation which I have made to Government, on behalf of a man who, although he has proved himself a failure when tested by examinations, has proved in my office a sharp and willing clerk.

3. In response to the query as to whether he passed any examination, I understand his sole qualification is that he is a "Failed Matriculate". This implies that, at least, he was educated up to certain standard.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Lieut-Col, I.M.S.,

Sanitary Commissioner for Madras.

3. Having regard to the warm recommendation by the Superintendent, Ramalingam is informed that whilst, so long ^{as} he fails to fulfil Government requirements he cannot be entertained in any post but that of Fourth clerk [a post on Rs. 15], should he manage to pass the Handwriting test and the Elementary Type-writing test in the forthcoming examination, any petition for reinstatement from him will be carefully considered.

C. No. 848 From the Sanitary Commissioner No. 1015, dated 5-5-1905.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination Rules.

J. Ragunatha Rao, a temporary clerk on Rs. 15 in the Sanitary Commissioner's Office, requests that he may be exempted from the Examination Rules for promotion to higher posts in the office.

2. He is ^{an} unpassed man and is reported to be not educationally qualified for public service. He has been in the office for the last four years.

3. It is not understood how the man could have been appointed to a clerk's post on Rs. 15 in the Sanitary Commissioner's Office without his having passed any examination. For posts on Rs. 15 and upwards the candidate must have passed the upper Secondary or other examinations prescribed as Equivalent thereto. The rule applies to all appointments, whether permanent, temporary or acting. The Sanitary Commissioner may therefore be asked to report about this in the first

In reply to the memorandum about the Sanitary Commissioner reports that J. Raghunatha Rao has not passed any examination but has ^{only} read up to the Matriculation standard and that the clerk was entertained in his office on Rs. 15 per mensem through ignorance of the provisions of the Public Service notification in that regard. He however trusts that this erroneous act on his part will not be permitted to militate against the recommendations he has made on behalf of Raghunatha Rao who has proved in his office a sharp and willing clerk.

2. Orders are solicited as to whether the exemption applied for should be granted.
