G.O., No. 571, Educational, dated 14th September 1904.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning the payment of the junior personal allowance, rendered vacant by the promotion of Mr. J. H. Stone to the senior allowance, to Mr. Alfred Chatterton with effect from the 11th July 1904.

READ—also the following paper :—

From A. CHATTERTON, Esq., Professor of Engineering on special duty, School of Arts, Madras, to the Director of Public Instruction, No. 167, dated 13th May 1905.

I have the honour to observe that in G.O., No. 571, Educational, dated 14th September 1904, which was recently communicated to me, payment of the junior allowance rendered vacant by the promotion of Mr. J. H. Stone to the senior allowance has been sanctioned to me from the 11th July 1904. I understand that the vacancy in the junior allowance occurred on the 25th November 1903 and that hitherto it has been usual to fill up vacancies as soon as they occur.

2. The 12th of July was the date from which my furlough commenced, so that practically the Government order has only come into effect from the 18th February 1905 when I returned to duty.

3. Under the circumstances I request the Government may be asked to reconsider the order they have passed and grant me the allowance from the date it was vacated by Mr. Stone.

ORDER—No. 375, Educational, dated 5th June 1905.

Mr. Chatterton will be informed that until recently the personal allowances were confined to certain appointments, of which his was not one, and that the discretion of which the Government have availed themselves to grant him an allowance has only been enjoyed by them from the 11th of July last. The grant of an allowance to him was therefore made with effect from the earliest admissible date.
