Sir,

To

HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONORABLE

BARON OLIVER VILLIERS LORD AMPHILL,

The GOVERNOR of MADRAS in COUNCIL,

O O T A C A M U N D.

Through

Lt.Colonel W. G. KING, C.I.E., I.M.S.,

SANITARY COMMISSIONER with the GOVERNMENT of MADRAS.

The humble memorial of T. Raguatharao, despatching clerk, Sanitary Commissioner's Office,

Most respectfully sheweth:-,

That Your Excellency's memorialist has been a clerk in the Office of the Sanitary Commissioner for Madras for the last 4 years and that during this period he has been mainly employed on despatch work and incidentally in referencing papers. Being an unpassed candidate, he is debarred from being brought on the (strength of the) permanent establishment, and from enjoying any of the attendant privileges of promotion pension, &c. To get over this obstacle in the way of preferment in official life, he petitioned the Sanitary Commissioner to move the benign Government to exempt him as a special case from the operation of the examination rules. Unfortunately for him his petition did not meet with the approval of Government - Vide. Copies of correspondence attached.

That

That, although he has not qualified himself for holding an appointment classed as superior under Government, he has to the best of his ability been conducting the work entrusted to him to the satisfaction of all concerned as has lately been attested by the Officer under whom he has the good fortune to serve.

That the memorialist prosecuted his studies up to the Matriculation standard, but was not able to pass the examination owing to prolonged ill-health at the time, in consequence of which and on the advice of his medical attendants he had to abandon further prosecution of his studies.

That your humble memorialist begs respectfully to represent that he is a nephew of Dewan Bahadur Ramachandra Rao Sahib and a member of the family of the Jaghirdars of Arni, whose services to the State are already so well known to Your Excellency that it is needless for him to refer to them here.

Under the above circumstances, Your Excellency's humble petitioner most humbly prays that Your Excellency in Council will be most graciously pleased to exempt him from the examination rules so as to make him eligible for Government service so far as this Office is concerned.

For this act of kindness Your Excellency's humble petitioner shall ever pray,

J. Rajunatha Row

Despatching Clerk,

Madras, 19th June 1905. Sanitary Commissioner's Office,

The original exemption asked for did not intend to other offices but to the office solely of the undersigned, and it was therefore asked for under G.O.No.456, Public, dated 15th May 1902, communicated in G.O.No. 520, L.Mis., dated 6th June 1902. If a general exemption for advancement in this office is thought inadmissible, the concession to allow the petitioner to retain his Rs. 15 appointment might at least be permitted.

Office of Sanitary Commissioner,
Madras, 7th May 1905.

From

Lieut.-Colonel W.G.King, C.I.E., I.M.S.,

Sanitary Commissioner for Madras.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Local and Municipal Department.

Forwarded to Government for favourable consideration with reference to G.O. No. 456, Public, dated 15th May 1902, communicated in G.O. No. 520.L.Mis., dated 6th June 1902.

2. The clerk was appointed temporarily to the last place in the arrangement connected with the appointment of one of the members of the office staff as Plague clerk. During the four years the petitioner has been in the office he has made himself extremely useful, and is deserving of encouragement. He is however not qualified for Public Service. Undersigned would therefore recommend that the exemption prayed for be granted, so far as this office is concerned, as it is desirable to retain his services. The man is of respectable parentage, and his conduct had been uniformly good.

C. No. 1204. From the Sanitary Commissioner No. 1361, dated 25-6-1905.

SUBJECT.

Exemption of J. Ragunatha Rao from the Examination Rules

Is it permanent or temporary? ~~Paper~~

But the Sanitary Commissioner has not shown that a passed candidate cannot be obtained for the pay, or that efforts have been made to obtain one. If he be exempted, it can be granted only on the grounds stated in para: 3.

H.D.P.
27-6-5.

The previous paper about J. Ragunatha Rao is put up - vide G.O. no. 371 Est: of 2-6-'05.

The post on Rs. 15 in the Sanitary Commissioner's office is a permanent one; but from para: 2 of his endorsement no. 1015⁵ of the 5th May 1905 on page 5 of G.O. no. 371 Est: of 2-6-'05 it will be seen that the clerk was appointed temporarily to that post four years ago. Orders are solicited as to whether the Sanitary Commissioner should now be asked to report whether a passed candidate cannot be obtained and what efforts have been made to secure the services of one.
